

The Contents

The Contents	i
Abstract.....	iii
Acknowledgment	v
Introduction	1
Chapter One: Setting the Scene	5
1.1 Philosophy of History.....	5
1.1.1 Early History	6
1.1.1.1 Egyptian Historiography	6
1.1.1.2 Israelites Historiography	7
1.1.1.3 Greek Historiography: Herodotus	8
1.1.2 Medieval historiography	8
1.1.3 Modern Writing of History	9
1.1.3.1 Leopold von Ranke and Modern Scientific History.....	10
1.1.3.2 The Enlightenment and History	11
1.1.3.3 History between Positivism and Idealism	11
1.1.4 Conclusion.....	13
Chapter Two: The Nabataeans: The History of History.....	15
2.1 Ethnicity: Emic and Etic Perspectives.....	18
2.2 Nabataean Ethnicity: Emic Perspective.....	20
2.2.1 'Ubaidu the Nabataean.....	20
2.2.2 Drb. 'tq. Mn'm. and Mesmar, the Nabataeans	22
2.3 Nabataean Ethnic Boundaries	23
Chapter Three: Imperial Discourse	25
3.1 Post-Colonial Theory and the Quest for Identity.....	25
3.1.1 The Justification of Imperialism: bellum iustum	26
3.1.2 Writing 'the Other': A Fear of Difference.....	34
3.1.3 The Nabataeans through Classical Eyes	36

3.1.3.1 The Nabataeans and Strabo.....	37
3.1.3.2 The Nabataeans and Josephus Flavius	42
3.1.3.3 The Nabataeans and Diodorus Siculus.....	44
3.2 Conclusion	46
Chapter Four: The Annexation of Nabataea within Roman Imperialism	48
4.1 General Background and Current Academic Views.....	48
4.2 Imperialism	48
4.2.1 Roman Imperialism	49
4.2.1.1 Defensive Imperialism	50
4.2.1.2 Conscious Imperialism: ἡ τῶν ὅλων ἐπιβολή.....	52
4.2.1.3 Economic Objectives behind Roman Imperialism.....	54
4.3 The Nabataeans and Roman Imperialism.....	57
Chapter Five: Domination and Resistance: Voices of Silence.....	63
5.1 The Annexation of Nabataea Reconsidered: Was the Annexation of Nabataea Bloodless?	63
5.1.1 Nabataean Military Resistance	67
5.1.2 The Power of Culture: Nabataean Cultural Resistance to the Romans.....	72
5.1.3 Forms of Nabataean non-Military Resistance to the Romans.....	75
5.2 Conclusion	83
Chapter Six: The Romans Invading Nabataea: A New Approach	86
6.1 Symbols of 'Ethnic' Revolts Within Nabataean Society	89
6.1.1 Damasī Claiming Self-determination for South Nabataea.....	89
6.1.2 The Revolt of the 'Awidh and Muḥārib Tribes.....	94
General Conclusion	95
Addenda	101
Bibliography.....	125
1.1 Ancient Sources	125
1.2 Modern Sources	125