

Contents

Preface: Out with the Authentic, In with the Wazimamoto	xi
Acknowledgments	xvii

Introduction: The Creation of a Cinema Engagé 1

1. Did We Get Off to the Wrong Start? Toward an Aesthetic of Surface versus Depth 22
2. Sembène's Xala, the Fetish, and the Failed Trickster 44
3. Cameroonian Cinema: Ba Kobhio, Teno, and the Technologies of Power 66
4. From Jalopy to Goddess: Quartier Mozart, Faat Kine, and Divine carcasse 95
5. Toward a Žižekian Reading of African Cinema 115
6. Aristotle's Plot: What's Inside the Can? 140
7. Finye: The Fantasmic Support 163
8. Hyenas: Truth, Badiou's Ethics, and the Return of the Void 177
9. Toward a Postmodern African Cinema: Fanta Nacro's "Un Certain matin" and Djibril Diop Mambéty's Parlons Grand-Mère 198

Notes 227

Filmography 251

Bibliography 255

Index 263