

Contents

List of Maps and Stemmata xi

Preface xxiii

Introduction 1

PART I Faith and Power in the Third Century

1. Religion in the Later Roman Empire 13

Roman state religion and imperial cults – The cult of the standards – Private religious devotion and cults – The mysteries of Mithras

2. The Rise of Christianity 38

Women and the spread of Christianity – Christianity as an urban phenomenon – Christian exceptionalism and martyrdom – Early Christian attitudes to warfare – Christians in the Roman army – Military martyrs and warrior saints

3. The Unconquered Emperor and his Divine Patron 62

The crisis of empire – The emperor and the army – The Roman theology of victory – The unconquered emperor and the Sun – Aurelian – Christ the true Sun

4. The Tetrarchy 87

The first Tetrarchy – Jovians and Herculians – The Caesars at war – The army of the Tetrarchs – The Great Persecution – Lactantius: On the Deaths of the Persecutors

PART II Constantine Invictus

5. Constantine Invictus 113

The second Tetrarchy – Constantine’s accession – Trier – A vision – The road to Rome – The Battle of the Milvian Bridge – Constantine Invictus and the theology of victory

6. Constantine and Rome 141

Maxentius in Rome – Adventus Constantini – The Arch of Constantine – Meanwhile: Licinius and Maximinus Daia – Constantine confronts Licinius

7. Constantine’s Conversion 167

A Christian education – The setting Sun? – Legislating toleration – The battle for toleration – Eusebius and the labarum – A common vision?

8. Constantinople 190

Nikopolis: victory city – Location and foundation – The monumental core – A Christian city? – A second senate – A new Alexander, a new Moses

PART III Victor Constantine

9. Victor Constantine 215

Victor eris – The new Flavians and the Great Cameo – The deaths of Crispus and Fausta – Goths and Sarmatians – Christian soldiers? – The Greatest Victor

10. Constantine Maximus Augustus 236

Government – Life at court – Pentarchy – Persia – The Holy Places

11. Constantine and the Bishops 256

Constantine the universal bishop – The Donatist schism and the Council of Arles – The Arians and the Council of Nicaea – The Christian emperor after Nicaea – The Church after Constantine

CONTENTS

12. Death and Succession 279

*Constantine's death – Apotheosis – Constantine as Christ –
The succession – Constantius Victor – Christian victory*

Conclusion 303

Glossary 309

Abbreviations 313

Primary Sources 314

Bibliographical Essays 316

Index 351