

Contents

Series Editors' Preface	ix
Preface	xii
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
Part 1 EDUCATION AND THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE CHILD
1 Lightening Our Darkness: Renaissance, Reformation and Enlightenment	11
2 A Pastoral Symphony: Pestalozzi, Froebel and Romanticism	35
3 Reclaiming Earthly Paradise: Froebelians and the Invention of Progressive Education	49
Part 2 MASS SCHOOLING AND MODERN CHILDHOOD
4 Industry, Philanthropy and Industrial Education Systems	67
5 'Christian Children All Must Be...': Moralists, Moral Panics and Empire	79
6 State Schooling and the Construction of 'Public Childhoods'	96
Part 3 SCHOOLING IN THE CENTURY OF THE CHILD AND BEYOND
7 Brave New Worlds and Rhapsody Renewed: New Rationalities, New Institutions and Old Ideas	123

viii Contents

8 The Shape of Jazz to Come: Plowden, Progressivism and Discourses of Difference 140

9 Can Things Only Get Better? New Labour, Quality of Life and Beyond 157

Bibliography 181

Index 195