

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
Part 1: Different Types of Family and Issues that Only Affect Some Kinds of Family	13
1 Issues for Families Speaking More than One Language at Home	15
2 Issues for Families Using One Language at Home, Another in the Community and at School	30
3 Interviewees who are Bilingual Solely through Attending School in Another Language	38
4 Interviewees who Learnt Languages Solely from the Community	45
5 Changes as a Result of Divorce or Separation	49
6 Changes as a Result of the Death of One Parent	54
7 Changes as a Result of Advice Given to Parents	57
8 Changes as a Result of Interviewees' Choices or Decisions	60
Part 2: Issues at Home that will Affect Most, if Not All, Families at Some Time	63
9 Consistency Versus Flexibility in Languages Used at Home	65
10 Rewards, Encouragement, Sanctions and Disapproval Linked to Language Use	78
11 Resistance – Children Who Prefer Not to Speak a Language	81
12 Fitting In/Standing Out	89
13 Input from Others, Resources and Holidays	97

Part 3: Education	107
14 Starting School and Changing Schools	109
15 Home Language Support/Teaching in Mainstream Schools	123
16 Additional Support Outside (or as an alternative to) Mainstream Schools	130
17 Help with Homework	139
Part 4: Language Policies and Politics	143
18 Language Status, Links to Politics and Racism	145
Part 5: Interviewees as Adults	151
19 Advantages and Disadvantages of Having Been Raised Bilingually	153
20 One Thing You Would Change about Your Bilingual Childhood and Advice to a Family Just Starting Out	157
21 Low Input and Language Loss and Retention	161
22 Identities	165
23 Studying and Working Abroad as Young Adults, Choosing Where to Live More Permanently and Using Bilingualism at Work	173
24 Relationships	178
25 Raising Children Monolingually or Bilingually and the Reasons Given	185
26 Access to Culture as Adults	193
27 Accents	195
28 Learning Additional Languages	199
Part 6: Overall Analysis and Recommendations	203
29 Factors Linked to Success or Failure	205
30 Recommendations to Parents Raising Multilingual Children	209
31 Suggested Reading	225
About Waltham Forest Bilingual Group and How This Project Got Started	227
Annex 1 – Questionnaire	231
Annex 2 – Language Self Assessment	240
Annex 3	243
Glossary	244
Index	246