

CONTENTS

Preface	ii	Catalogue of baths in the Peloponnese	111
Introduction	1	Bibliographical catalogue of other sites with bathing installations	147
Introductory notes	1	Illustrations	151
The theoretical framework of the study	2	Korinthia	151
Hellenization and Romanization	4	Argolida	187
On architectural taxonomy	7	Eleia	221
The intellectual inheritance of René Ginouvès in the study of baths	16	Arkadia	253
On spatiality	17	Achaea	259
Summary	20	Lakonia	271
		Messenia	279
The bath in Bronze Age Greece and in the Homeric epics	21	Abbreviations	285
Introductory notes	21	Bibliography	287
The bath in the Minoan civilization	22
The bath in the Mycenaean civilization	26
The bath in the Homeric epics	28
Chronological and typological issues in the study of Roman baths in Italy	33
Introductory notes	34
The architectural development of Roman baths	34
The typological classification of Roman baths	44
The spaciality of the bath	45
Summary	46
A symmetrical presentation of the Greek and Roman bathing traditions on the basis of the study of the architectural remains of Helladic space	47
The Greek bathing tradition: The urban countryside, the fountain, the gymnasium, the public bath, the house, the place and the sanctuary	47
The Roman bathing tradition: The gymnasium, the baths, the house and the sanctuary	74
Summary	96
Hellenization and Romanization of the Roman and Greek bathing traditions respectively	99
Introductory notes	99
The origins of the Roman bathing tradition	99
The Romanization of the bath in Greece	102
The long term development of the bath in Greece	103		