

Frank A. D'Accone

---

Music and Musicians in 16th-Century Florence

---

ASHGATE
VARIORUM

CONTENTS

Introduction	vii-xx
Acknowledgements	xxi
I The musical chapels at the Florentine Cathedral and Baptistry during the first half of the 16th century Journal of the American Musicological Society 24. Philadelphia, PA, 1971	1-50
II Updating the style: Francesco Corteccia's revisions in his responsories for Holy Week Music and Context: Essays for John M. Ward, ed. Anne Dhu Shapiro. Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press, 1985	32-53
III Matteo Rampollini and his Petrarchan canzoni cycles Musica Disciplina 27. Florence, 1973	65-106
IV Singolarità di alcuni aspetti della musica sacra fiorentina del Cinquecento Firenze e la Toscana dei Medici nell'Europa del '500, Vol. II, Musica e spettacolo: Scienze dell'uomo e della natura, ed. Gian Carlo Garfagnini. Florence: Leo S. Olschki Editore, 1983	513-537
V The Florentine fra Mauros: a dynasty of musical friars Musica Disciplina 33. Neuhausen-Stuttgart, 1979	77-137
VI Marco da Gagliano and the Florentine tradition for Holy Week music La musique et le rite sacré et profane, Vol. II, ed. Marc Honegger and Paul Prevost. Actes du XIIIe Congrès de la Société Internationale de Musicologie (Strasbourg, 29 August-3 September 1982): Strasbourg: Association des Publications près les Universités de Strasbourg, 1986, pp. 323-363	1-27

VII	Repertory and performance practice in Santa Maria Novella at the turn of the 17th century A Festschrift for Albert Seay: Essays by his Friends and Colleagues, ed. Michael D. Grace. Colorado Springs, CO: The Colorado College, 1982	71-136
	Addenda and Corrigenda	1-4
	Index	1-11

This volume contains xxii + 312 pages