

Contents

---

List of Tables	vii
Abbreviations and Acronyms	viii
List of Contributors	xi
Preface and Acknowledgements	xiv
1. Introduction	1
Leslie Holmes
2. Terrorism and Organised Crime	29
Frank Bovenkerk and Bashir Abou Chakra
3. Countering Terrorism as if Muslims Matter: Cultural Citizenship and Civic Pre-Emption in Anti-Terrorism	42
Pete Lentini
4. 'Soft Law' Regimes and European Organisations' Fight Against Terrorist Financing and Money Laundering	60
Rémy Davison
5. The Corruption–Organised Crime Nexus in Central and Eastern Europe	84
Leslie Holmes
6. All in the Dutch Construction Family: Cartel Building and Organised Crime	109
Petrus C. van Duynne and Maarten van Dijk
7. The State, Business and Corruption in Russia	130
Yuri Tsyganov
8. Political Corruption and the Law-Governed Post-Communist State: the Polish Case and Broader Applications	155
Adam Czarnota
9. Countering Corruption: An Australian Perspective	170
George Gilligan and Diana Bowman

10.	Poodle or Bulldog? Tony Blair and the 'War on Terror' Peter Shearman	192
11.	The 'War on Terror' and the Resuscitation of State Power as an Anti-Corruption Strategy Mark DaCosta Alleyne	209
12.	Some Concluding Observations: A Quadrumvirate in Future? Leslie Holmes	226
	Bibliography	251
	Index	289