

Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Acknowledgments   | ix        |
| Introduction  | 1         |
| Mary G. De Jong  |           |
| 1: Rethinking Sentimental Motherhood   | 13 |
| 1 “These Human Flowers”: Sentimentalizing Children and Fashioning Maternal Authority in Godey’s Lady’s Book          | 15        |
| Kara B. Clevinger  |           |
| 2 “The Medicine of Sympathy”: Mothers, Sons, and Affective Pedagogy in Antebellum America                                   | 29        |
| Ken Parille  |           |
| 3 The Ethics of Postbellum Melancholy in the Poetry of Sarah Piatt  | 47        |
| D. Zachary Finch   |           |
| 2: Reform and Sympathetic Identification   | 67 |
| 4 “The Language of the Eye”: Communication and Sentimental Benevolence in Lydia Sigourney’s Poems and Essays about the Deaf | 69        |
| Elizabeth Petrino  |           |
| 5 Lydia Maria Child’s Use of Sentimentalism in Letters from New-York   | 89        |
| Susan Toth Lord  |           |
| 6 Sympathetic Jo: Tomboyism, Poverty, and Race in Louisa May Alcott’s Little Women                                   | 105       |
| Kristen Proehl   |           |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 3: Loss, Death, Mourning, and Grief   | 121 |
| 7 Desired and Imagined Loss as Sympathetic Identification:Donald Grant Mitchell's Reveries of a BachelorMaglina Lubovich | 123        |
| 8 The Collaborative Construction of a Death-Defying Cryptext:Walt Whitman's Leaves of GrassAdam Bradford                 | 141        |
| 9 "Such Verses for My Body Let Us Write": Civil War Song,Sentimentalism, and Whitman's Drum-TapsRobert Arbour            | 161        |
| 10 Psychological Sentimentalism: Consciousness, Affect, and theSentimental Henry JamesGeorge Gordon-Smith                       | 181        |
| AfterwordMary Louise Kete   | 197        |
| References   | 205        |
| Index  | 217        |
| About the Contributors   | 231        |