

Contents

	Page
Acknowledgements	vii
Note	viii
1. INTRODUCTION	1
 PART I—THE STAGE IS SET
2. SETTING THE STAGE	11
European Unity. European Economic Unity. European Security. Constituting the German Federal Republic. Development of the Atlantic Defence Framework
3. 1950—THE FATEFUL YEAR	50
The Schuman Plan. Politico—Military Developments. The Pleven Plan. The Spofford Proposals. The Way Ahead
 PART II—THE NEGOTIATIONS AND THE EDC TREATY
4. THE LONG APPROACH	105
The Paris and Petersberg Interrelationship. The New Course. The Rome Meeting and its Aftermath. Supranationality and the Threat of Failure. Progress Restored. The Signing of the Treaty
5. THE EDC TREATY AND ITS ASSOCIATED PROTOCOLS, AGREEMENTS AND DECLARATIONS	150
The Treaty. The Protocols. Declarations, Associated Treaties, Agreements and Exchanges of Letters

PART III—RECONSIDERATION

6. SECOND THOUGHTS 191
 Comparative Analysis of the EDC Treaty in relation to other Security Treaties. The Interim Committee. Attitudes of the Participants and Observers. Alternatives to EDC. Doubts and Delays. The Additional Protocols. The United States Administration Changes. Franco-German Developments. Article 38 and the Ad Hoc Assembly. Pursuit of the Elusive: Ratification. The Deepening of the French Dilemma
7. PRELUDE TO FAILURE 227
 The Bermuda Conference. 'The Agonising Reappraisal'. The Berlin Conference. The Pressure Builds Up. The Geneva Conference
8. LA RONDE EST COMPLETE 266
 M. Mendès-France. The International Situation. Geneva Resumed. The Developing Drama. The Brussels Conference and the Chartwell Meeting. The French Assembly Debate and Vote

PART IV—POSTSCRIPT TO FAILURE

9. THE HISTORIC AFTERMATH 303
 International Reaction to the EDC's Defeat. The Crystallisation of Events. The Eden Tour of European Capitals. The London Conference. The Paris Conference. The Second French Assembly Debate. Finale
10. THE EXPERIENCE 340
- Bibliography* 344
- Index* 353