

Contents

Małgorzata Grzegorzewska and Jean Ward
Prolegomena: The Aporias of Wonder	7
1. Mystics, Philosophers and Poets
Alex Villas Boas
Wonder and Desire in the Dialogue Between Theology and Literature	17
Rossano Zas Friz De Col, SJ
The Hermeneutical Circle: Between Mystery and Wonder in the First Spiritual Experience of Ignatius of Loyola	27
Cristina Bustamante
Wonder and Imagination in Ignatius of Loyola: A Study from Paul Ricoeur's Work	39
Przemysław Uściński
Wondering/Wandering: Scepticism and the (Peripatetic) Enlightenment	49
Martin Potter
Epistemologies of Wonder: David Jones and Catherine Pickstock	65
Marco Damonte
The Poetic Sources of Anthony Kenny's Agnosticism	75
Mark S. Burrows
Epiphanies in the Ordinary: The Wondering of Poets in a Destitute Age	87
2. Lovers and Strangers
Kathryn Wills
Impersonal Beings, or Personal Thresholds of Incarnated Wonder? An Examination of the Beloved Women of Bonnefoy, Dante and Yeats in the Light of Maurice Blanchot's "The Gaze of Orpheus"	103

Stefano Maria Casella
“La Mystère, la Beauté, et la Mystique de la Nature”: The Poetics of Wonder in Henry Beston’s The Outermost House	117
Giorgio Durante
The Roots of Eugenio Montale’s “Saddened Wonder”	129
3. In Wonderment, Awe and Praise
Christopher Hodgkins
“The wonder of his pittie”: Shock and Awe in George Herbert’s Temple	145
Maria Fengler
The Self and the World: The Modernity of Edward Thomas	157
Monika Szuba
In Wonderment: David Constantine and the Commonplace	171
Katarzyna Dudek
The Burning Bush: The Wonder-full and Wonder-less in R. S. Thomas’ Poetry	185
Anna Walczuk
The Poetic Magnificat of Elizabeth Jennings and Jan Twardowski, a Polish Priest-Poet	197
Notes on Authors and Editors	209
Index of Persons	215