

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| List of Abbreviations .....  | ix  |
| Illustrations .....  | xi  |
| 1 Introduction .....   | 1   |
| 1.1 Material Culture Studies .....   | 14  |
| 1.2 Victorian Material Culture: “Object lessons” at the Crystal Palace and at Home .....                                     | 22  |
| 1.3 Overview of Criticism: Material Culture and Victorian Literature .....   | 30  |
| 1.4 Sensation Fiction and Keepsakes.....   | 37  |
| 2 “the most casual notice [...] of some very unpromising object”: Keepsakes as “narrative-matter” in After Dark ..... | 45  |
| 2.1 “I resolved to imitate the French author”: Discovering Things .....  | 48  |
| 2.2 Metonymic Objects .....  | 56  |
| 2.2.1 “I should like it put into my portrait, sir”: Framed Keepsakes .....   | 58  |
| 2.2.2 “The owner of these possessions lived in the bygone time”: The Past as Collection .....                                | 60  |
| 2.2.3 Curiosities.....   | 65  |
| 2.3 Metonymic Objects as Telling Things.....   | 67  |
| 3 “I’ve got a design against all your heads”: Connecting and Collecting Hair in Hide and Seek .....                   | 69  |
| 3.1 Strong Metonymic Reading and the Biography of Things .....   | 71  |
| 3.2 Victorian Hair in Hide and Seek .....   | 75  |
| 3.2.1 The Hair Market and the “Traffic” in Hair .....  | 80  |
| 3.2.2 Mary’s Hair Bracelet: A Biography .....  | 83  |
| 3.2.3 Scalps, Scalping, and Head Hunting.....  | 92  |
| 3.3 “the Samson of Kirk Street”: Mat as Detective .....  | 102 |
| 3.4 The Scalp and the Hair Keepsake as Uneasy Twins.....   | 106 |
| 4 “Let these trifles speak for her”: Keepsakes and the Letter as Bequests in The Dead Secret .....                    | 109 |
| 4.1 Reading/Writing the Letter and ‘Touching’ Things .....   | 112 |
| 4.1.1 Hidden Letters and Buried Writing in Collins’s Fiction.....  | 112 |
| 4.1.2 Sarah Leeson Among Things .....  | 116 |
| 4.1.3 Hands and Touch in the Characterisation of Sarah Leeson .....  | 126 |
| 4.2 Recording the Secret.....  | 129 |
| 4.2.1 The Writing of the Letter.....   | 129 |
| 4.2.2 Sarah Leeson’s Collections .....   | 131 |
| 4.3 The Letter and Things as Media of Transmission .....   | 148 |
| 5 “Suspicious circumstances have not been investigated”: Hair Keepsakes and Photography in The Law and the Lady ..... | 151 |
| 5.1 “How comes the teacup to be broken?”: Things as Evidence.....  | 154 |

|       |  |     |
|-------|--|-----|
| 5.2   | “disinterring the Major’s treasures”: The Search of the Room.....                        | 159 |
| 5.2.1 | The Album.....   | 160 |
| 5.2.2 | Hair Souvenirs and Photographs .....   | 163 |
| 5.3   | The Context of Carte-de-Visite Photography .....   | 167 |
| 5.3.1 | “There was the original”: The Photograph and Identification .....                        | 167 |
| 5.3.2 | The Carte as Reproducible Image.....   | 168 |
| 5.3.3 | The Carte as a ‘Device of Truth’ .....   | 171 |
| 5.4   | Keepsakes as Modern Materials and Sensational Affect .....                               | 175 |
| 5.4.1 | The Material of “the new age” .....  | 175 |
| 5.4.2 | The Hair Keepsakes, Affect, and Infection.....   | 181 |
| 5.5   | Detection and Affect in Hair Mementos and Photographs .....                              | 187 |
| 6     | “the last relic of Mary”: The Keepsake and the Body in The Two Destinies..... | 189 |
| 6.1   | “Disguised from each other”: The Problem of Remembrance .....                            | 195 |
| 6.2   | Memory and ‘Recognition’ in Things .....   | 204 |
| 6.2.1 | “Do you prize that toy?”: The Material and Meaning of the Green Flag .                   | 204 |
| 6.2.2 | Framing the Souvenirs’ “influence” .....   | 213 |
| 6.3   | “The old wound opens again”: The Body and Remembering .....                              | 221 |
| 6.4   | Distributed Remembrance .....  | 227 |
| 7     | Sensational Things.....  | 231 |
| 8     | Works Cited.....   | 243 |