

Contents

---

Acknowledgments | 7

Introduction | 9

1. The Loss of Reality in Late Nineteenth-Century America | 33

2. Business in American Romance and Realism | 47

2.1 Didactic and Satirical Business in American Romance | 49

2.2 American Realism: An Aesthetics of Orientation | 59

2.3 Business in the Works of Early Realists | 76

3. The Realist Business in *The Rise of Silas Lapham | 91

3.1 W. D. Howells: The Search for Orientation | 93

3.2 Orienting Business in The Rise of Silas Lapham | 109

4. The Naturalist Business in *The Financier | 131

4.1 American Naturalism: An Aesthetics of Scandal | 133

4.2 Theodore Dreiser: The Search for Intensity | 158

4.3 “Uncivilizing” Business in The Financier | 178

5. Business in American Modernism | 199

5.1 American Modernism: An Aesthetics of Subjectivity | 201

5.2 Subjectivizing Business in The Great Gatsby | 216

Conclusion | 225

Works Cited | 237