

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Musical Intersections, Embodiments, and Emplacements Fiona Magowan and Louise Wrazen	1
Part One: Landscape and Emotion
1 Engendering Emotion and the Environment in Vietnamese Music and Ritual Barley Norton	17
2 Gendering Emotional Connections to the Balinese Landscape: Exploring Children's Roles in a Barong Performance Jonathan McIntosh	38
3 Performing Emotion, Embodying Country in Australian Aboriginal Ritual Fiona Magowan	63
Part Two: Memory and Attachment
4 Christian Choral Singing in Aboriginal Australia: Gendered Absence, Emotion, and Place Muriel Swijghuisen Reigersberg	85
5 Transforming the Singing Body: Exploring Musical Narratives of Gender and Place in East Bavaria Sara R. Walmsley-Pledl	109
6 A Place of Her Own: Gendered Singing in Poland's Tatras Louise Wrazen	127
Part Three: Nationalism and Indigeneity
7 Singing the Contentions of Place: Korean Singers of the Heart and Soul of Japan Christine R. Yano	147

vi CONTENTS

8	“In Our Foremothers’ Arms”: Goddesses, Feminism, and the Politics of Emotion in Sámi Songs Tina K. Ramnarine	162
	Afterword Beverley Diamond	185
	Selected Bibliography	195
	List of Contributors	201
	Index	203