

Contents

Acknowledgments IX

List of Illustrations X

Introduction: Imagining the Text 1

Wigalois and Ekphrasis 1

What Was Ekphrasis? 7

Wigalois: Summary and Reception 9

Chapter Outline 15

PART I

Imagining the Text

1 Ekphrasis as a Structuring Device 21

Dividing the Narrative 22

Ekphrasis as a Structuring Device 25

Setting the Stage: The Magic Belt 25

From Boy to Man, Part One: The Stone of Virtue 32

From Boy to Man, Part Two: The Golden Wheel 35

Through God All Things Are Possible: Japhite's Tomb 42

The Final Stages: Larie's Tent 47

Conclusion 53

2 Ekphrasis as an Integrative Device 55

Ekphrasis and Integration 58

Harmonizing Families and Fictional Worlds: The Magic Belt 58

Arthurian and Faerie Realms in Wigalois 59

Integrating the Arthurian and the Wondrous 63

The Stone and the Arthurian Circle 67

The Golden Wheel and Religious Elements 71

Triuwe and Riuwe: Japhite's Tomb 78

The Tent and the Final Harmonization 85

Conclusion 87

3 Ekphrasis and Courtly Identity 89

Courtly Identity and Self-representation 89

Courtly Ideals and Romance	95
Ekphrasis and Courtly Identity in Wigalois	98
Ekphrastic Belts and the Construction of Courtly Femininity	98
The Magic Belt and Chivalric Masculinity	104
The Stone and Storytelling	106
Gwigalois's Wheel and the Literary Uses of Heraldry	111
The Tomb's Inscription and Courtly Literary Culture	115
Larie's Tent, Courtliness, and Virtual Splendor	124
Conclusion	131

PART 2

The Text Imagined

4 Ekphrasis and Visualization Strategies in the Illustrated Wigalois Manuscripts	135
Heraldry and Integration: Manuscript B	138
Basic Description of the Manuscript	138
Heraldic Visualization	141
Integration in Manuscript B	147
Didactic hövescheit : Codex Donaueschingen 71	155
Basic Description of the Manuscript	155
The Role of the Captions	157
Deictic and Didactic Visualization	161
Conclusion	166
5 Re-imagining Narrative in Wigoleis vom Rade	168
The Strassburg Wigoleis and Its Layout	172
A Reconceived Text for a New Audience	175
A Question of Literary Quality?	175
Different Audiences	178
Reading and Literacy	180
Visuality, Structure, and Narrative	183
Eyewitnessing and a New Attitude toward Description	183
Woodcut and Caption: Guiding and Linking	191
Narrative and Illustrative Simplification	195
Envisioning Courtliness in the Strassburg Woodcuts	199
Conclusion	202

6 Literature and Legitimization: The Wigalois Frescoes at Runkelstein Castle	204
Material Visualizations of German Vernacular Literature	206
The Vintler Brothers and the Murals at Runkelstein	209
Ernst Karl von Waldstein and the Wigalois Frescoes	216
Description of the Wigalois Images at Runkelstein	218
Why Wigalois ? Possible Interpretations	222
Conclusion: Understanding the Book	226
Bibliography	229
Index	241
Illustrations	245