

Contents

List of figures	xiv
About the author	xv
1 Developing personal knowledge about books	1
Social and cultural influences on reading	2
Case Study Childhood reading history	2
Commentary	3
Activity 1.1 Personal childhood reading history	4
Activity 1.2 Keeping a reading journal	7
Patterns of children's reading	7
Activity 1.3 Exploring the patterns of children's reading	9
Commentary	10
Activity 1.4 Auditing your personal knowledge about books: range	12
Commentary	12
Activity 1.5 Auditing your personal knowledge about books: authors and illustrators	12
Commentary	14
Activity 1.6 Reflecting on your reading	15
Commentary	15
Activity 1.7 Keeping track of your books	15
Commentary	16
Further reading	16
Appendix 1.1 Setting targets for personal reading	17
2 Reading for purpose and pleasure	19
Activity 2.1 Reading for pleasure vs reading for instruction	21
The rights of the reader	22
Activity 2.2 The rights of the reader	22
Pupil voice	23
Activity 2.3 What do the children tell us?	24
Reading spaces and the reading environment	24
Activity 2.4 The reading environment	26
Commentary	27

The school library	27
Activity 2.5 Review your school library provision	29
Commentary	29
Reading aloud	31
Activity 2.6 Advocating for reading aloud	31
Commentary	31
Activity 2.7 Reading aloud	33
Commentary	33
Home-school links	33
Opportunities for sustained independent reading	35
Celebrating reading	35
Further reading	36
3 Reading and responding	37
Some words on the nature of literature	37
Activity 3.1 What is literature?	39
Reading and creativity	39
Activity 3.2 How is reading creative?	40
Commentary	40
Filling the gaps	40
Activity 3.3 Filling the gaps	41
Commentary	42
What is comprehension?	43
Activity 3.4 Reading between the lines: thought bubbles	46
Commentary	47
Intertextuality	47
The affective response	48
Activity 3.5 Being an onlooker	50
Response journals	50
Activity 3.6 Children's reading logs and journals	51
Contexts for developing response: guided and group reading	52
Questions, statements, prompts	53
Activity 3.7 Questioning the text	54
Small group activities: directed activities related to texts	54
Prediction	55
Activity 3.8 Reading clues to predict ahead	56
Commentary	57

Analysing text	57
Activity 3.9 Badger on the Barge	57
Commentary	58
Sequencing	59
Activity 3.10 Tracking the plot	59
Commentary	59
Visual representation of text	59
Activity 3.11 Visual responses to text	60
Commentary	60
Cloze procedure	60
Activity 3.12 Cloze procedure	62
Commentary	62
Activity 3.13 Preparing cloze passages	63
Deeper thinking	63
Further reading	63
Appendix 3.1 Book record 1	64
Appendix 3.2 Book record 2	65
Appendix 3.3 What you know about a character	66
Appendix 3.4 Evidence from the book	67
Appendix 3.5 Storyboard planner	68
4 Narrative, narration and structure	69
What is narrative?	69
Activity 4.1 Narrative thinking	70
Oral storytelling	70
Activity 4.2 Investigation	70
Narrative non-fiction	71
Activity 4.3 Narrative non-fiction	71
Commentary	72
Activity 4.4 Auto biography	73
Commentary	73
Activity 4.5 Reading narrative non-fiction	74
Narration in fiction	74
Activity 4.6 Narration	74
Third-person narration	75
Unintrusive and intrusive third-person narrative	77
Personal narration	77

Objective viewpoint	80
Consistent and multiple viewpoints	80
The unreliable narrator	82
Narrating in the past and present tenses	82
Activity 4.7 Past and present tense	83
Commentary	83
Experimental forms of narration	84
Activity 4.8 Research: taking it further	84
Selected titles	85
Narrative structure	85
Activity 4.9 Structuring a traditional tale	86
Commentary	86
Elements of standard narrative structure	87
Coda	88
Story frame	89
Activity 4.10 Narrative structure	90
Story shapes	90
Activity 4.11 Reading and analysing picture books	90
Seven basic plots	93
Activity 4.12 Identifying basic plots	96
Non-conventional structure	96
Suspense and surprise	97
Conflict	98
Activity 4.13 Conflict in stories	98
Commentary	98
Key words	100
Further reading	101
Appendix 4.1 Kate Crackernuts	102
5 Aspects of narrative: character, setting and themes	105
Aspects of narrative fiction	105
Activity 5.1 Summarizing stories	105
Commentary	105
Character	106
Activity 5.2 Favourite characters	106
Character functions	108
Representation of character	109

Child characters	111
Activity 5.3 Exploring constructions of childhood	114
Adult characters	115
Animals and toys	116
Activity 5.4 Reviewing animal stories	117
Building character	118
What's in a name?	119
Activity 5.5 Naming heroes and villains	120
Commentary	120
Character through action, thought and dialogue	121
Activity 5.6 Assessing character introductions	123
Commentary	125
Setting	126
Setting and symbolism	128
Activity 5.7 Symbolic settings	128
Commentary	128
Activity 5.8 Time and place	129
Subject and theme	129
Activity 5.9 Themes in children's books	131
Key words	131
Further reading	131
6 Traditional stories and fairy tales	132
Traditional stories	132
Activity 6.1 Traditional story types	132
Myths	133
Activity 6.2 Nodelman and Reimer	135
Activity 6.3 Stories from different cultural traditions	135
Myth in children's fiction	136
Activity 6.4 Myth in contemporary children's books	137
Legends	137
Activity 6.5 Investigating legendary heroes	139
Folk tales	140
Activity 6.6 Investigating folk tales	140
Commentary	140
Activity 6.7 Studying a folk tale	142
Commentary	143
Fractured fairy tales	144

Activity 6.8	Stories from different cultural	145
Activity 6.9	Comparing traditional tales	146
	Fables	148
Activity 6.10	Animals in fables	148
	Trickster tales	149
Activity 6.11	Reviewing trickster tales	149
	Literary fairy stories	150
	Hans Christian Andersen (1805–75)	150
	Oscar Wilde (1854–1900)	151
Activity 6.12	Comparing literary fairy tales	152
Activity 6.13	Traditional stories: which version	153
	Further reading	153
7	Fantasy and realism	154
	Fantasy	154
Activity 7.1	The purpose of fantasy?	155
Activity 7.2	Reviewing fantasy fiction	158
	The range of fantasy fiction	158
	Features of alternative-world fantasy	160
Activity 7.3	Alternative-world fantasy	166
Activity 7.4	Forms of fantasy	167
	Dream fantasies	167
	Ghost stories	168
Activity 7.5	Ghost stories	169
Activity 7.6	Reviewing fantasy	170
	Realism	172
	Everyday life	173
	Families	173
Activity 7.7	Family fictions	175
	Other themes and issues in contemporary realistic fiction	176
Activity 7.8	Reviewing realism	177
	The problem novel	177
	Values in realist fiction	178
	Language	180

Activity 7.9	Books for the classroom: moral, social and political issues	181
Activity 7.10	Comparing fantasy and realism	181
Appendix 7.1	Fantasy vs Realism	182
8	Time and place in children's fiction	183
	Time and place	183
	Bringing the past to life	183
Activity 8.1	Choosing historical fiction	184
	Commentary	184
	Recollection as history	185
	Historical fiction	186
	Whose history?	186
	Language	188
	Point of view and artistic integrity	189
Activity 8.2	Point of view in historical fiction	189
	Universal human experience	189
Activity 8.3	Reading historical fiction	190
	Period fiction	190
	Family chronicle	191
	Alternative histories	192
	Historical fantasy	192
	Historical sources in fictional contexts	194
Activity 8.4	Reviewing writing about the past	194
	Time-slip	196
Activity 8.5	Reviewing time-slip	198
	Science fiction: speculation and futuristic settings	199
Activity 8.6	Investigating genre reading	203
	Another place: a world view	205
Activity 8.7	Reading the world	206
9	Words and pictures	208
Activity 9.1	Defining picture books	208
	Commentary	208
	Get to know the illustrators	209
	The anatomy of the picture book	210

The language of pictures	212
Media	213
Histories of art and style	214
The interplay of text and illustration	215
Activity 9.2 Comparing picture books	216
Wordless picture books	216
Activity 9.3 Sharing wordless picture books	216
Activity 9.4 Reviewing picture books	219
Pop-up, lift-the-flap, novelty	220
Activity 9.5 Novelty books	220
Alphabet and other concept books	221
Activity 9.6 Reviewing concept books	222
Further reading	223
10 The pleasure of poetry	224
Memories of poetry	225
Activity 10.1 Poetry memories	225
Commentary	225
What is poetry?	228
Activity 10.2 Defining poetry	228
Commentary	228
Types of poetry	232
Activity 10.3 Create an anthology	233
How well do you know your poets?	234
Activity 10.4 Children's poets	234
Commentary	235
The experience of poetry	236
Activity 10.5 Why read poetry	236
Poetry for the classroom	236
Activity 10.6 Selecting poetry for the classroom	236
Reading poetry with children	237
Performing poetry	238
Activity 10.7 Perform a poem	240
Talking in groups	240
Resources for poetry	241
Further reading	242
Appendix 10.1 William Wordsworth poem unscramble exercise	243

11 Reviewing book provision and policy: schools and classrooms	244
Spending on books in schools	245
Activity 11.1 Book purchasing	245
Commentary	246
A framework for creating a book collection	246
Activity 11.2 Building a book collection	246
Commentary	246
Assessing levels of difficulty in fiction	248
Activity 11.3 Readability	248
Activity 11.4 The five-finger test	249
Auditing the current book stock	250
Taking account of children's needs and interests	251
The question of quality in children's books	251
Activity 11.5 Abridging and simplifying	252
Commentary	252
What makes a classic?	254
Activity 11.6 Reviewing classic children's books	254
Classics for modern children?	255
The question of suitability: childhood and values	255
Controversial statements	256
School librarians and school library services	256
Activity 11.7 Finding out about the school library service	258
Time to read	258
Activity 11.8 A reading classroom	258
Appendix 11.1 Readability formula	259
Appendix 11.2 Controversial statement cards	260
Select bibliography	261
Index	267