

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Maps	xi
Family Tree of the Gattilusio Lords	xvii
Introduction	1
Sources	7
The Geographical Setting	14
Secondary Literature	22
Structure	26
1 Political Context and Development	29
Background	29
The Lordships before the Battle of Ankara	39
From the Battle of Ankara to the Fall of Constantinople	52
The Last Years	66
2 Byzantium: Sovereignty and Legitimacy	77
The Place of the Lordships in Byzantine Government	78
Family Relationships and Dynastic Struggles	96
Legitimacy and Mutual Advantage	105
The Self-Representation of the Regime	114
The Impact of the Byzantine Connection	124
3 Genoa: Migration and Solidarity	129
The Place of the Lordships in the Genoese World	132
Solidarity with the Genoese Community	144
Physical and Financial Disengagement from the Metropolis	152
Family Connections and Representatives in Genoa	162
Conflict Within the Community	168
The Alum Industry and Genoese Commerce	172
4 The Lordships as a Network: Family and Enterprise	187
Dynastic Policy and the Distribution of Power	188
The Role of the Extended Family in the Lordships	194

Commercial Connections	201
Divergent Patterns of Trade	218
Piracy	234
5 Inside the Lordships: Communities and Government	245
Inhabitants of the Lordships	246
Financial Resources	254
Latin Settlement	260
Governmental Forms and Functionaries	266
Religious Institutions	286
High Culture, Community Relations and the Union	302
6 Latin Christendom: Common Causes and Compromises	319
Incentives and Disincentives	321
Crusading against the Turks	326
The Pursuit of Goodwill	339
Church Union	345
The Attitudes of Others	348
7 The Turks: Security and Submission	359
Forces of Attraction and Repulsion	360
Turkish Division and Unification	366
Ottoman Crisis and Recovery	374
Failure to Endure	386
The Impetus for Conquest	393
Conclusion	399
Appendix 1: Old Phokaia	407
Appendix 2: Territorial Acquisitions in the Northern Aegean	413
Appendix 3: The Alum of Maroneia	419
Bibliography	423
Index	451