

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Toward Post-Heroic Warfare? Sibylle Scheipers	1
Part I Heroism and Self-Sacrifice What For?
1 Heroism and the Nation during the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars and the Age of Military Reform in Europe Thomas Hippler	21
2 'On the Altar of the Nation': Narratives of Heroic Sacrifice in the American Civil War Adam I. P. Smith	33
3 'Heroic' Warfare and the Problem of Mass Armies: France 1871–1914 Hew Strachan	47
4 Heroism and Self-Sacrifice for the Nation? Wars of National Liberation Rob Johnson	64
5 War against Evil: The Second World War Peter Schrijvers	76
6 Mass Armies and the Cold War: Institutional Post-Heroism? Ingo Trauschweizer	93
7 Heroism and Self-Sacrifice: The Vietnam War as a Case in Point Bernd Greiner	108
8 The Dilemma of Cosmopolitan Soldiering Cheyney Ryan	120
Part II Casualty Aversion
9 Provocations on Policymakers, Casualty Aversion and Post-Heroic Warfare Peter D. Feaver and Charles Miller	145

10	'Casualty Aversion': Media, Society and Public Opinion Susan L. Carruthers	162
11	Questioning the Post-Heroic Warfare Logic: Private Contractors, Casualty Sensitivity and Public Support for War in the United States Deborah Avant	188
12	Redefining Stand-off Warfare: Modern Efforts and Implications Antulio J. Echevarria II	203
Part III Combat Motivation
13	Cohesion: Heroic and Post-Heroic Combat Anthony King	221
14	Inspirational, Aspirational and Operational Heroes: Recruitment, Terror and Heroic Conflict from the Perspective of Armed Groups Andrea J. Dew	237
15	Suicide Bombers: Victims, Heroes or Martyrs? Rashmi Singh	251
16	The War Within: Moral Injury and Guilt Nancy Sherman	268
17	The Democratic Warrior and the Emergence of World-Order Conflicts Andreas Herberg-Rothe	286
Part IV From Heroes to Victims?
18	Citizenship, Masculinity and Mental Health in the First World War Peter Barham	305
19	Why Soldiers Don't Fight Simon Wessely	324
20	Remembering the Heroes of Australia's Wars: From Heroic to Post-Heroic Memory Joan Beaumont	334
21	Public Ritual and Remembrance: Beyond the Nation-State? John Hutchinson	349
	Select Bibliography	367
	Index	375

List of Figures and Tables

Figures

9.1	Neo-natal mortality rate for US whites per 1000	152
9.2	Male life expectancy in the United States	152
9.3	White birth rate per 1000	153
11.1	Print media coverage of military and private security companies (PSCs), 2003–07	192

Tables

11.1	Perceptions of soldier/contractor motivations	195
11.2	Emotional reactions to war stories	195
11.3	Assessments of US involvement in Iraq	196