

Table of Contents

Thomas De Baets, Gerhard Sammer & Adri de Vugt
Introduction.

EAS: 25 Years of International Cooperation 7

I. EAS – A EUROPEAN MUSIC EDUCATION NETWORK

Franz Niermann (Austria)

Music Educational Interests in an Association.

Development and Perspectives in the History of the European Association for Music in Schools (EAS) 19

Isolde Malmberg (Austria)

meNet as Laboratory for Sustainable Cooperation in Music Education.

A Boost for EAS 35

Marina Gall (United Kingdom), Branka Rotar Pance (Slovenia)
& Gerhard Sammer (Germany)

The International EAS Student Forum.

Professional Development for Future Music Teachers 49

Jeremy Cox (United Kingdom), Helena Maffli (Switzerland),

Georg Schulz (Austria) & Adri de Vugt (The Netherlands)

“Stile Concertante”.

Developing a Flexible Model for the (Co-)Operation of Europe’s Music Education Networks 69

II. A LANDSCAPE OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

Simone Dudt (Germany)

International and European Music and Arts Education Policies 87

Martin Prchal (The Netherlands)

European Cooperation in Higher Music Education.

From Individual Mobility to Institutional Development 103

Lee Higgins (United Kingdom) and others International Cooperation in Music Teaching and Learning. Perspectives from the International Society of Music Education	117
Helena Maffli (Switzerland) European Music School Union (EMU). Network of Networks	129
III. COOPERATION IN PRACTICE
Tommy Lindskog (Sweden) & Christopher Wallbaum (Germany) Looking Beyond the End of Our Noses. A Successful Intensive Program Focusing on Music in Schools	143
Côme Ferrand Cooper (Germany) & Sonja Greiner (Germany) Cooperating to Foster Collective Singing in Europe	157
Irena Medňanská (Slovakia) Visegrad Group in Music Education. Cooperations and Projects	173
Sarah Hennessy (United Kingdom) Researching Music Education in Europe	185
List of Abbreviations	199
List of EAS Conferences from 1990 to 2015	201
The Editors	202
The Authors	204