

Table of Contents

Christoph Classen (Potsdam)
Introduction: Transnational Broadcasting in Europe 1945–1990 – Challenges, Concepts, and Preliminary Findings	7
Katja Berg / Anna Jehle (Potsdam)
“Through the Air to anywhere”: Radio Luxembourg – A Transnational Broadcasting Station?.....	23
Christoph Hilgert (Munich)
Unwanted Impulses: Asymmetric Challenges for Public Service Radio in West Germany and Great Britain in the 1950s and early 1960s	45
Alexander Badenoch (Utrecht)
Behind the Ironic Curtain: Surfing the Western Airwaves between ‘Pirate’ Radio and Public Service	65
Christian Henrich-Franke (Siegen)
Broadcasts for Motorists: Traffic Radio and the Transnationalisation of European Media Cultures	91
Franziska Kuschel (Potsdam)
Between Hostility and Concession. The Conflict about Western Commercial Broadcasting in the GDR, 1985–1989.....	107
Richard Oehmig (Potsdam)
The International. Das DDR-Fernsehen und die Filmgeschäfte von Hans-Joachim Seidowsky	123