

Contents

Acknowledgements	A vii
Introduction: Ecological Crises, Nonhumans and the Age of Man Sy Taffel and Nicholas Holm	ix
PART I: NONHUMAN AGENCY	1
1 Carbon Bonds: Coal Economics and Aesthetics Sean Cubitt	3
2 Consider the Lawnmower: Aesthetics, Politics and Entanglements of Suburban Nature Nicholas Holm	17
3 Learning with the River: On Intercultural Gifts from the Whanganui Charles Dawson	35
4 From Wai 262 to Water: Towards Postcolonial Property Rights in Aotearoa New Zealand Jacob Otter	55
PART II: CULTIVATION AND CULTURE	71
5 The Plough as Settler Colonial Cultural Icon: Voices from the Other Side of the Blade Victoria Grieves	73
6 Conserving Land through Kindly Use and Reciprocity: Using the Land and Being Used by the Land Anne O'Brien	91

7	“One Loaf of Bread at a Time”: System Change through Community Food Initiatives Sharon Stevens	107
8	In Different Voices: Engaging with Human–Nonhuman Entanglements Sita Venkateswar	125
	PART III: EPISTEMOLOGY, AESTHETICS AND MEDIATION	141
9	Photographic Reflections on Landscape Change in Regional Australia Christopher Orchard and James Holcombe	143
10	Nature as Creative Catalyst: Building Poetic Environmental Narratives through the Artists in Antarctica Programme Octavia Cade	159
11	Mediating the “Deep”: A Partial Genealogy of Media Work with Oceans and Seas Gareth Stanton	177
12	Exiled in the Bush: A History of Landscape Transformation in Post-European Settlement New South Wales David Orchard and Peter Orchard	197
13	Mapping the Anthropocene Sy Taffel	219
	Index	241
	About the Contributors	247