

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction	1
Learning from your research project	2
The stepping stones of your research project	3
2 The preliminaries: getting started	5
Choosing a topic	5
Your university studies	5
Your school years	5
Your work experience	6
The world around you	6
The university library	7
Narrowing your topic	7
Drafting a research project proposal	10
The organization of your project	12
3 Working with your supervisor	15
Initiating the student–supervisor relationship	15
Writing emails to your supervisor	17
The components of your email	18
Longer emails	23
Email etiquette	24
Insights from the literature 3.1: emailing your instructors	27
4 Finding literature	29
What are academic sources?	29
Keywords	30

Where to look for literature 32
 The Internet 32
 The library 34
 Electronic bibliographic resources 35
Recording bibliographic information 36

5 Reading

37

Reading strategically 37
Academic reading 37
Reading a journal article 39
Reading a book 43
Note-taking while reading 44
Understanding complex nouns 46
 Insights from the literature 5.1: complexity in academic texts 47
From reading to writing: critically engaging with the literature 49
 Showing limitations, disagreeing or extending previous claims 49
 Insights from the literature 5.2: the reading–writing nexus 51

6 Collecting data

54

Access and ethical issues 54
Choosing your participants 55
Data collection instruments 57
 Questionnaires 57
 Interviews 66
 Insights from the literature 6.1: developing your interview skills 71
 Observations 72
 Piloting your data collection instrument 74
 Focus-group discussions 74
 Think-aloud protocols 77
 Insights from the literature 6.2: thinking aloud and data collection 79

7 Your project chapter by chapter

82

Starting to write 82
The Introduction 83
 Insights from the literature 7.1: the Introduction in moves 85
The Literature Review 89
Describing methods 93
 Insights from the literature 7.2: moves and methods 98
Presenting quantitative data 99

Analysing and presenting qualitative data	102
Reporting results	105
Discussing results	106
The Conclusion	111
Insights from the literature 7.3: from the Discussion to the Conclusion in moves	112
8 Features of academic writing	114
Sounding 'academic' in writing	114
Summaries, quotations and paraphrases	115
Paraphrasing	117
Quotations	122
Insights from the literature 8.1: why cite?	126
Avoiding plagiarism	128
Insights from the literature 8.2: approaches to plagiarism	132
Using the language of the discipline	134
Academic language: style and register	134
Linking words	137
Insights from the literature 8.3: linking words and semantic relationships	137
The pronoun 'I'	143
Insights from the literature 8.4: the problematic first-person pronoun	144
Paragraph structure	149
Definitions	151
Giving examples	155
Hedging your claims	157
Insights from the literature 8.5: exercising caution	158
9 Research logistics: time management and revisions	161
Study habits	161
Demands on your time	162
Revising your work	163
Getting help with language	165
Presenting your work: the oral examination	165
Insights from the literature 9.1: preparing for the defence	167
Appendix 1: introductions from published articles	170
Appendix 2: conclusions from published articles	174
Appendix 3: creating transitions in your writing	178

viii Contents

Appendix 4: reporting verbs	180
Appendix 5: citing your sources	182
Answer key to the exercises	186
References	199
Index	203