

CONTENTS

1	Introduction Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado	1
Part I	Conceptual Engagements and Legacies: Bourdieu Through Latin America	15
2	Bourdieu's Imposition of Form and Modernismo: The Symbolic Power of a Literary Movement Andrew Reynolds	17
3	Bourdieu in Latin America Through the Eyes of Néstor García Canclini Juan Poblete	45
4	Reading Mexican Mestizaje and Carlos Fuentes Through Bourdieu Pedro Ángel Palou	65

Part II	Field Theory and Latin American Culture	85
5	Aesthetic Rivalries in Avant-Garde Mexico: Art Writing and the Field of Cultural Production Manuel Gutiérrez Silva	87
6	José María Arguedas, Creator of Creators: Arte Popular in the Field of Cultural Production Kent L. Dickson	131
7	Cruel Dispositions: Queer Literature, the Contemporary Puerto Rican Literary Field and Luis Negrón's Mundo Cruel (2010) Sergio Gutiérrez Negrón	157
8	The Public Economy of Prestige. Mexican Literature and the Paradox of State-Funded Symbolic Capital Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado	187
Part III	Iberian and Transatlantic Cultural Fields	223
9	Discord and Solidarity: Spain, Argentina, and Mexico in El Estudiante (Salamanca, Madrid, 1924–1926) Vanessa Marie Fernández	225
10	Below and Above the Nation: Bourdieu, Hispanism, and Literary History José Luis Venegas	249
11	Pierre Bourdieu, Indignado: Social and Symbolic Struggles in Spain's 15-M Vicent Moreno	269
12	Post Scriptum: Illusio and the Reproduction of the Corps—Notes from an Ambivalent Gatekeeper Sebastiaan Faber	299
Index		319