

Contents

Preface and acknowledgements	x
1 Sexuality and the historian	1
Introduction	1
Histories of sexuality	2
Sexuality and power	6
Sexuality and the politics of history	10
The making of 'modern' sexuality	12
2 'That damned morality': sexuality in Victorian ideology	24
Victorian sexuality: myths and meanings	24
Emergent patterns	27
The domestic ideology	29
Sex and class	35
3 The sacramental family: middle-class men, women and children	41
Masculinity and femininity	41
Birth control	48
Childhood	52
4 Sexuality and the labouring classes	61
Middle-class myths, working-class realities	61
Traditions, illegitimacy and proletarianisation	63
The patterns of family life	71
Respectability and its discontents	77

5	The public and the private: moral regulation in the Victorian period	85
	Forms of moral regulation	85
	Private morality, public vice	88
	Reform or control?	94
6	The construction of homosexuality	101
	Homosexuality: concepts and consequences	101
	The sins of Sodom	103
	Moral, legal and medical regulation	106
	Identities and ways of life	114
	Intimate lives	121
7	The population question in the early twentieth century	135
	Population politics	135
	Maternalism	139
	Eugenics	141
	The influence of eugenics	148
8	The theorisation of sex	155
	A new continent of knowledge	155
	Sex, science and society	160
	Havelock Ellis and sex research	163
	The impact of Freud	166
9	Feminism and socialism	175
	Sexual radicalism and its limits	175
	Feminism and sexuality	176
	The morals of socialism	183
10	Sex psychology and birth control	197
	Sex psychology	197
	International movements	201
	Parenthood and birth control	203
11	Towards a conservative modernity	216
	A 'glorious unfolding'?	216
	Domesticity and family life	218
	Protecting purity	232
	Psychology and sex delinquency	239

12	The state and sexuality	251
	Welfare and citizenship	251
	Reproducing the population	251
	Towards the complementary marriage	255
	'Wolfenden' and sexual liberalism	260
13	The permissive moment	272
	The transition	272
	'Permissiveness'	273
	Youth	276
	Women	280
	Ideologies	285
	The political moment	287
	The limits of permissiveness	292
14	Personal politics and moral conservatism	302
	The ebbing tide	302
	Second-wave feminism	304
	The challenge of gay liberation	308
	The new moralism	311
	The Thatcherite experiment	317
	The AIDS crisis	322
15	The changing landscape of sexuality and gender	332
	Global sexualities	332
	Intimate pleasures	335
	Doing families	339
	Reproductive rights	341
	Children at risk	343
	A gender revolution?	346
16	Diversity, agency and citizenship	355
	The changing world of LGBT people	355
	Being ordinary	359
	Multicultural Britain?	361
	Live and let love	364
	Index	371