

Bulletin of the German Historical Institute

Supplement 13 | 2017

Forging Bonds Across Borders: Transatlantic Collaborations for Women's Rights and Social Justice in the Long Nineteenth Century

5 INTRODUCTION

Britta Waldschmidt-Nelson and Anja Schüler

NEW WOMEN'S BIOGRAPHY

- 17 Transatlantic Freethinker, Feminist, and Pacifist: Ernestine Rose in the 1870s

Bonnie S. Anderson

- 35 Speaking Truth to Divergent Powers: Margaret Fuller, Bettina von Arnim and the Broken Bond

Carol Strauss Sotiropoulos

WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL NETWORKS

- 55 Transatlantic Networks for Legal Feminism, 1888-1912

Sara L. Kimble

- 75 Reform Claims in Family Law and Legal Struggles of the Bund Deutscher Frauenvereine within the International Council of Women, 1888-1914

Marion Röwekamp

- 93 A Rare Colored Bird: Mary Church Terrell, Die Fortschritte der farbigen Frauen, and the International Council of Women's Congress in Berlin, Germany, 1904

Noaquia N. Callahan

WOMEN IN SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

- 111 Abolitionists Abroad: Women, Travel, and Abolitionist Networks
Stephanie J. Richmond
- 129 The World Woman's Christian Temperance Union: An Early Transnational Women's Organization and Its Work in India, 1883-1900
Lori Osborne

THE TRANSATLANTIC EXCHANGE OF KNOWLEDGE

- 145 A Transatlantic Network: American and German Women in the Kindergarten Movement
Ann Taylor Allen
- 167 Aletta Jacobs and the Dutch Cap: The Transfer of Knowledge and the Making of a Reputation in the Changing Networks of Birth Control Activists
Mineke Bosch