

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction Linda R. Tropp	3
1. Becoming an Engaged Scholar: Getting Started Linda R. Tropp	7
2. The Media: Helping Journalists Use and Interpret Your Research Amy T. Schalet	21
3. The Public: Engaging a Nonscholarly Audience Samuel R. Sommers	41
4. Public Policy: How Psychologists Can Influence Lawmakers Roberta Downing	57
5. Government and Organizations: Transforming Institutions Using Behavioral Insights Abigail Dalton and Max H. Bazerman	75
6. The Courts: How to Translate Research for Legal Cases Eugene Borgida and Susan T. Fiske	89
7. Law Enforcement: Finding Common Purpose Jack Glaser and Amanda Charbonneau	105

CONTENTS

8.	Education: Building Trusted Partnerships With Schools	123
	Geoffrey Maruyama and Lara Westerhof
9.	Health Professionals: Conducting Research With Physicians	141
	Louis A. Penner
10.	Community-Based Organizations: Enhancing Collaboration and Dissemination of Research	159
	Meg A. Bond and Michelle C. Haynes-Baratz
11.	Teaching and Mentoring: How to Involve Students in Engaged Scholarship	177
	Jamie Franco-Zamudio and Regina Langhout
12.	Where Have We Been, Where Are We Now, and Where Should We Be? Linking Engagement to Scholarship	195
	John F. Dovidio
	Index	211
	About the Editor	219