

Contents

Preface	9
Isabelle Graw and Christoph Menke
I. Critique of Critique
Against Critique, For Critique.....	15
Bruno Latour
The Hammer of the Gods: Critique, after all.....	31
Benjamin Noys
Two Ways of Understanding the Politics of Nature.....	44
Dirk Setton
II. The Power of Critique
Diderot, or The Power of Critique	53
Beate Söntgen
Letting ourselves be determined.....	73
Martin Seel
Actualizing Affirmation.....	75
Kerstin Stakemeier

Critically Affirming Affirmation	81
Beate Söntgen

III. Criticize Your Life

Criticism and its Discontents—In Defense of an Immanent Critique of Forms of Life	87
Rahel Jaeggi

On Internal, External and Immanent Critique in Rahel Jaeggi	111
Eva Geulen

Going Further: Lebensformen, Politics, and Critique	120
Thomas Lemke

IV. Social Critique

Critical Sociology and Sociology of Critique	129
Luc Boltanski

Three Questions—An Inquiry into the Sociology of Critique	139
Juliane Rebentisch

V. Labour and Value

(Un-)Doing the Capitalist Self.....	145
Sabeth Buchmann

Working hard for what?—The Value of Artistic Labor and the Products that result from it.....	155
Isabelle Graw

Art and the Reproduction of the Value-Form	162
Christoph Menke
Art, Value, and Value-Form Theory	171
John Roberts
About the Authors	185