

Acknowledgements	7
------------------------	---

Caroline Lusin and Ralf Haekel

'This is England': Community, the State of the Nation, and Seriality in Contemporary British and Irish Television Series	9
--	---

I. Family, Morality, and Communal Cohesion

Sina Schuhmaier

Tommy Shelby's Modern Family Business: The Ethics of Community in Peaky Blinders (2013-)	27
---	----

Kerstin Frank

'If we are not a community of neighbours, then we are nothing': Small-Town Moralities, Social Change, and Social Cohesion in Broadchurch (2013-2017)	51
---	----

Ralf Haekel

Families in Gangland: Dysfunctional Community in Love/Hate (2010-2014)	73
---	----

II. Nostalgia and the Search for Community

Wieland Schwanebeck

A Field That Is Forever England: Nostalgic Revisionism in Detectorists (2014-2017)	99
---	----

Lisa Schwander

'He's one of us': Community, Imperialism, and the Narrative of Progress in Indian Summers (2015-2016)	119
--	-----

Lucia Krämer

The Rural Community as National Microcosm: The Great War and the Birth of Modern Britain in The Village (2013-2014)	143
--	-----

III. Crime and Social Decline in Urban Communities

Caroline Lusin

Drugs, Sheep, and Broken Lives: Dysfunctional Families, Violence, and the Subversion of Nostalgia in Happy Valley (2014-) 167

Luis Özer

Marginalised Tower Blocks: Crime and Community on the Council Estate in Top Boy (2011-2013) 193

Annika Gonnermann

‘With great power comes’... Nothing: Superheroes, Teenage Delinquents, and Dysfunctional Community Structures in Misfits (2009-2013) 213

IV. Vice and Virtue in Capitalist Communities

Stefan Glomb

‘You wonderful priest’: Community as the Essence of Christianity in Broken (2017) 239

Monika Pietrzak-Franger

Black Holes, Zombie Capitalism, and Communities of Care: Luther (2010-) as a 21st-Century Psychomachia 261

Laura Winter

Tweet Others How You Wish to be Tweeted: Digital Technology and the Sense of Community in Black Mirror (2011-) 281