

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
List of Abbreviations	x
Introduction: Absentee Authority across Medieval Europe Frédérique Lachaud and Michael Penman	1
1 Incarnating Authority, Exercising Authority: The Figure of the King in the Merovingian Era Bruno Dumézil	21
2 'Ubi armae ibi princeps': Medieval Emblematics as the Real Presence of the Prince Laurent Hablot	37
3 While the Bishop's Away ...: Absentee Bishops of Parma during the Investiture Contest Robert Houghton	56
4 An Inconceivable Absence: Usurpers and Illegitimate Rulers in the Genealogical Rolls of the Kings of England, from the Late Thirteenth to the Early Fifteenth Centuries Olivier de Laborderie	78
5 Local Loyalty and Absentee Authority in Thirteenth-Century Normandy: The Evidence of the Querimoniae Normannorum (1247) Tom Horler-Underwood	92
6 Representation and Authority in Thirteenth-Century England and Gascony Frédérique Lachaud	112
7 Internal Exiles: Exclusion from the Fourteenth-Century English Court and Kingdom James Bothwell	132
8 'Si grant charté a Paris ... par defaulté du roy': Governmental Practice and the Customary Geography of the Absence and Presence of the King in France (1364–1525) Léonard Dauphant	153

9	Was the Couple a Palliative to the Absence of the Prince? The Political Role and Influence of Margaret of Flanders during the Reign of Philip the Bold, Duke and Count of Burgundy (1384–1404) Michelle Bubenicek	171
10	Guardian – Lieutenant – Governor: Absentee Monarchy and Proxy Power in Scotland's Long Fourteenth Century Norman Reid and Michael Penman	191
11	Absentee Authority in Late Medieval Iceland, as Viewed from the Literary Sources Hans Jacob Orning	219
12	Representatives of Kings and 'Kings' as Representatives: Authority and its Representation in Professional Groups in Late Medieval and Early Modern France – the Example of the King of Minstrels and of the King of Mercers Torsten Hiltmann	240
	Index	255