

CONTENTS

1. Introduction Pierre L. van den Berghe	7
2. Predicaments and Options of Critical Intellectuals at South African Universities Heribert Adam	17
3. Commitment: the Liberal as Scholar in South Africa Hilda Kuper	30
4. On the Liberal Definition of the South African Situation Hamish Dickie-Clark	48
5. The Impossibility of a Liberal Solution in South Africa Pierre L. van den Berghe	56
6. Sociology and Universal Reality: South African Implications Fatima Meer	68
7. The Magician and the Missionary Adam Kuper	77
8. The African Doctor: his Role in the Community Hilstan L. Watts	97
9. The Political Implications of a Split Labour Market Analysis of South African Race Relations Edna Bonacich	106
10. The Politicisation of Ethnic Universities: Experiences with South Africa's 'College Brews' Kogila A. Moodley	117
11. Intellectuals and Academic Apartheid, 1950-1965 Margo Russell	133
12. Biographic Sketch and Bibliography of Leo Kuper	153
Notes on Contributors	157
Index	159