

Table of Contents

Klaus Stierstorfer, Laurenz Volkmann, Teaching Postmodernism – Postmodern Teaching: An Introduction .....	9
I. Postmodernism Reconsidered
Hans Bertens, The Fiction and the Theory: A Personal Retrospective .....	27
Theo D'haen, Third Space, Third Way, Third Class: Counter-Postmodernism, Transnationalism, Glocalisation .....	35
II. Challenges and Chances of Postmodern Theories
Klaus Stierstorfer, Literary Theory – Interpretation – Education: A Postmodern Reconsideration of Traditional Hierarchies .....	45
Ralf Weskamp, Postmodern Thinking in Foreign Language Teaching and Research .....	61
Carola Surkamp, Canon, Contents, Concepts: Teaching British Postmodern Narratives in the Foreign Language Classroom .....	77
Werner Delanoy, Postmodernism as a Challenge to a Hermeneutic Literature Didactics? .....	99
Saskia Schabio, Postmodern Pedagogy and Mimetic Desire .....	121
Jürgen Donnerstag, Postmodern Criticism and the Reading of Literature in the Education of Foreign Language Teachers .....	137
III. New Contexts of Teaching Postmodernism
Dirk Vanderbeke, Is There a Teacher in This Class? / Is There a Tongue in This Cheek? .....	157
Christophe Den Tandt, Teaching Postmodernism in a Non-Postmodern Environment .....	169
Christopher Norris, Postmodernism, Cultural Relativism and Science Education .....	181
IV. Teaching Postmodern Literature and Culture
Christian Berkemeier, Textual Models of Complexity: Approaching “Classic Postmodernists” .....	211
Susanne Peters, Consuming Narratives or, The Postmodern Student’s Resistance to Theory: Teaching (in) Jonathan Franzen’s Novel The Corrections .....	231