

CONTENTS

Sources of illustrations	v
Translator's preface and acknowledgements	xi
1. Historical introduction	I
Before the Roman conquest 2; The progressive imposition of Roman control 3; From the Severans to Constantine 5; The Vandals 7; The Byzantine reconquest 8; The organization of agriculture in the Roman period 9; Africans and the passion for literature 12; Christianity and the conflicts that came with it: Catholics, Donatists and Arians 14; The history of research 17
2. Mauretania Caesariensis	23
The mausoleum of Beni Rhénane 24; Portus Magnus (Bethioua, formerly Saint- Leu) 26; The Djeddars 27; Caesarea (Cherchel) 29; The Aqueduct of Caesarea 50; Tipasa 52; The Mauretanian Royal Tomb 75; Icosium (Algiers) 77; Rapidum (Sour Djouab) 88; Sitifis (Sétif) 92
3. Numidia	99
Cuicul (Djémila) 100; Castellum Tidditanorum (Tiddis) 139; Cirta-Constantina (Constantine) 152; The mausoleum of El Khroub 161; Thibilis (Annuna) 162; The Medracen 166; The Legio III Augusta 168; Lambaesis (Lambèse/Tazout) 169; Thamugadi (Timgad) 185; Diana Veteranorum (Zana) 222; The frontier zone 226
4. Africa Proconsularis	231
Hippo Regius (Bône, Annaba) 232; Calama (Guelma) 252; Thubursicu Numidarum (Khamissa) 257; Madauros (M'Daourouch) 265; Theveste (Tébessa) 271
Chronology	291
Glossary	292
Further reading	307
Index	309