Contents

Part I Introduction

1 Challenging the Political: Religious Actors and Religious Arguments in Liberal Democracies 3
Mirjam Weiberg-Salzmann and Ulrich Willems

Part II Catholic-Latin States with Low Level or Little Religious Pluralism

2 Discursive Strategies of Catholic Churches in Assisted Reproduction Technology Regulation: Poland and Spain in Comparison 33
Anja Hennig

3 The Role of Religion in Debates on Embryo Research and Surrogacy in France 61
Jennifer Merchant

4 Embryonic Silences: Human Life Between Biomedicine, Religion, and State Authorities in Austria 73
Ingrid Metzler and Anna Pichelstorfer

5 Moral Politics in Ireland: From Religious Domination to Political Indifference 97
Mirjam Weiberg-Salzmann

Part III Protestant(-English) States with High or Moderate Level Religious Pluralism

6 Biotechnology and the Nonreligious Uses of God Talk 123
John H. Evans

7 The Political Debate on Embryo Research in New Zealand and the Role of Religious Actors and Arguments 139
David Gareth Jones

Religion and biopolitics

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

8 The Political Debate on Embryo Research in Australia and the Role of Religious Actors and Arguments 161
Frank O'Keeffe and Kevin McGovern

Part IV Protestant(-Scandinavian) States with Low Level Religious Pluralism

9 The Status of the Human Embryo: A Case Study of Embryo Experiments and Embryo Research in Denmark 191
Jacob Dahl Rendtorff

10 Religion and Biopolitics in Sweden 213
Göran Hermerén and Mats Johansson

11 Consensus vs. Confrontation: Negotiating Embryo Politics in Norway and Italy 225
Mirjam Weiberg-Salzmann and Massimiliano Passerini

Part V Mixed-Confession States with High Level Religious Pluralism

12 The Role of Religion in the Political Debate on Embryo Research in the Netherlands 257
Wybo J. Dondorp and Guido M. W. R. de Wert

13 Moralizing Embryo Politics in Germany: Between Christian-Inspired Values and Historical Constrains 281
Mirjam Weiberg-Salzmann and Ulrich Willems

14 Bioethics and Biopolitics in Switzerland: Stem Cell Research and Preimplantation Diagnostics in the Public Discourse 299
Monika Bobbert and Yvonne Zelter

15 Morality Policies: How Religion and Politics Interplay in Democratic Decision-Making 331
Nathalie Schiffino