

Contents

Part 1 Introduction

- 1 Culture's Ship:
Returns and Departures in International Relations Theory
Yosef Lapid 3
- 2 The Past as Prelude to the Future?
Identities and Loyalties in Global Politics
Yale H. Ferguson & Richard W. Mansbach 21

Part 2 Culturing Neorealism?

- 3 Identity and Structural Change in International Politics
Alexander Wendt 47
- 4 Knowing Encounters:
Beyond Parochialism in International Relations Theory
Naeem Inayatullah & David L. Blaney 65
- 5 Culturing International Relations Theory:
A Call for Extension
Sujata Chakrabarti Pasic 85
- 6 Revisiting the "National":
Toward an Identity Agenda in Neorealism?
Yosef Lapid & Friedrich Kratochwil 105

Part 3 New Paradigms and Perspectives

7	Ground Identity: Nature, Place, and Space in Nationalism Daniel Deudney	129
8	Identity in International Relations Theory: Feminist Perspectives J. Ann Tickner	147
9	Violent Performances: Identity, Sovereignty, Responsibility David Campbell	163
10	Citizenship: On the Border of Order Friedrich Kratochwil	181

Part 4 Conclusion

11	Is the Ship of Culture at Sea or Returning? Friedrich Kratochwil	201
	Bibliography	223
	The Contributors	245
	Index	247
	About the Book	253