

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: A World of Colonial Empires No Longer their Own	1
1. A Question of Respectability: Colonial German Responses to the Treaty of Versailles and Colonial Guilt	31
2. “O Afrika, Meine Seele ist in dir geblieben”: Heimat and Citizenship for German Settlers in the 1920s	68
3. Echte Deutsche or Half-Baked Englishmen? German Southwest African Settlers and the Naturalization Crisis, 1922–1924	96
4. Grasping for a Great New Future: The German Colonial Lobbies in Search of a United Platform	121
5. From Unfit Imperialists to Fellow Civilizers: German Colonial Officials on the Permanent Mandates Commission	157
6. The Faithful Hounds of Imperialism? Heinrich Schnee on the League’s Manchurian Commission	194
Epilogue: The Persistence of Empire	216
Bibliography	239
Index	267