

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	7
Introduction	10
1 The social and religious setting	13
2 The arrival of radical freedom	23
3 Church as household gathering	33
3 Church as heavenly reality	43
5 The community as a family	52
6 The community as a body	62
7 Intellectual elements in growth	71
8 Physical expression of fellowship	80
9 Gifts and ministry	91
10 Charisma and order	102
11 Unity in diversity among the members	113
12 The contribution of women in church	122
13 Participation and its responsibilities	132
14 Service and its recognition	142
15 The structure of Paul's work	152
16 The work and the churches	161
17 The apostle in the community	171
18 The authority of the apostle	180
Conclusion	188
Appendix
The drift of the Pastorals	192
Bibliography	199
Glossary	205