

CONTENTS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments  | xii |
| Preface  | xiv |
| 1 Introduction  |     |
| Overview   | 1   |
| Basic Forms  | 2   |
| On terminology   | 2   |
| On being ungrammatical   | 2   |
| On good English  | 3   |
| Basic meanings   | 5   |
| ‘I am more interesting in English Grammar’                           | 6   |
| Why can I say ‘I shot the sheriff’, but not *‘I smiled the sheriff’? | 9   |
| Linguistic distance  | 11  |
| Meanings in context  | 12  |
| Discussion topics and projects                                       | 16  |
| Teaching ideas   | 17  |
| Further reading  | 20  |
| 2 Articles  |     |
| Overview   | 23  |
| Basic forms  | 24  |
| An article machine   | 26  |
| Basic meanings   | 28  |
| Countability   | 29  |
| Singular or plural?  | 30  |
| Individuation  | 30  |
| Conceptual structure: classifying and identifying                    | 33  |
| Meanings in context  | 38  |
| Already given: anaphoric and cataphoric ( the )               | 40  |
| Clearly given (zero article)   | 41  |
| A note on a new article  | 43  |
| Discussion topics and projects                                       | 43  |
| Teaching ideas   | 45  |
| Further reading  | 51  |

|                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------|-----|
| 3 Tense and aspect         |     |
| Overview                          | 53  |
| Basic forms                       | 54  |
| The basic structure               | 55  |
| Basic meanings                    | 57  |
| Tense                             | 58  |
| Aspect                            | 62  |
| Lexical aspect                    | 62  |
| Grammatical aspect                | 65  |
| Meanings in context               | 68  |
| In a magazine article             | 68  |
| In academic writing               | 69  |
| In narratives                     | 70  |
| In a news report                  | 71  |
| In spoken discourse               | 72  |
| Discussion topics and projects    | 72  |
| Teaching ideas                    | 75  |
| Further reading                   | 83  |
|                               |     |
| 4 Modals                   |     |
| Overview                          | 85  |
| Basic forms                       | 86  |
| The simple modals                 | 87  |
| Basic meanings                    | 88  |
| Epistemic modality                | 88  |
| Root modality                     | 89  |
| Necessary and possible            | 89  |
| Meanings in context               | 91  |
| The potential of can       | 91  |
| The possibility of may     | 94  |
| The necessity of must      | 97  |
| The likelihood of will     | 100 |
| The requirements of should | 106 |
| Negation and modals               | 108 |
| Discussion topics and projects    | 111 |
| Teaching ideas                    | 114 |
| Further reading                   | 120 |

5 Conditionals

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Overview                                | 123 |
| Basic forms                             | 124 |
| Factual conditionals                    | 124 |
| Predictive conditionals                 | 124 |
| Hypothetical conditionals               | 125 |
| Counterfactual conditionals             | 125 |
| Basic meanings                          | 127 |
| What happens if ... ?                   | 127 |
| What will happen if ... ?               | 127 |
| What would happen if ... ?              | 128 |
| What would have happened if ... ?       | 129 |
| Meanings in context                     | 132 |
| Restating                               | 132 |
| Contrasting                             | 133 |
| Listing alternatives                    | 134 |
| Giving examples                         | 135 |
| End-weight                              | 137 |
| Uncertainty and politeness              | 139 |
| Exceptional and concessive conditionals | 142 |
| Discussion topics and projects          | 145 |
| Teaching ideas                          | 147 |
| Further reading                         | 152 |

6 Prepositions and particles

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Overview  | 156 |
| Basic forms   | 156 |
| Prepositions  | 158 |
| Basic meanings: prepositions                          | 160 |
| Location in space                                     | 160 |
| Location in time                                      | 164 |
| Location in metaphor                                  | 166 |
| Particles   | 167 |
| Basic meanings: particles                             | 169 |
| Up and down                             | 170 |
| Off , on , out , and away | 172 |
| Meanings in context                                   | 174 |
| End-weight  | 176 |
| Discussion topics and projects                        | 178 |
| Teaching ideas  | 180 |
| Further reading                                       | 185 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 7 Indirect objects   |     |
| Overview  | 187 |
| Basic forms   | 188 |
| Types of verbs  | 189 |
| Basic structures: origins and pronunciation                       | 190 |
| Basic meanings  | 192 |
| Humans, transfer, and having                                      | 193 |
| Transfer and not having   | 195 |
| Creating, getting, and benefiting                                 | 196 |
| Meanings in context   | 197 |
| End-weight  | 199 |
| Linguistic distance   | 200 |
| Discussion topics and projects                                    | 201 |
| Teaching ideas  | 203 |
| Further reading   | 207 |
|   |     |
| 8 Infinitives and gerunds                                  |     |
| Overview  | 211 |
| Basic forms   | 212 |
| Basic meanings  | 214 |
| Group 1: verbs with only finite ( that ... ) complements   | 215 |
| Group 2: verbs with only to-V non-finite complements       | 215 |
| Group 3: verbs with only V-ing non-finite complements      | 215 |
| Group 4: verbs with both to-V and V-ing complements | 216 |
| Meanings in context   | 217 |
| Noun-like events  | 218 |
| Verb-like actions   | 219 |
| Deny and refuse                                     | 219 |
| Types of verbs  | 221 |
| Linguistic distance   | 227 |
| Discussion topics and projects                                    | 228 |
| Teaching ideas  | 231 |
| Further reading   | 236 |
|   |     |
| 9 Relative clauses   |     |
| Overview  | 240 |
| Basic forms   | 240 |
| Subject relatives   | 241 |
| Object relatives  | 241 |
| After-preposition relatives                                       | 242 |
| Possessive relatives  | 243 |
| Basic structures  | 245 |

|                                      |     |
|--------------------------------------|-----|
| Basic meanings                       | 250 |
| Who, which, that              | 251 |
| Where, when, why              | 252 |
| Meanings in context                  | 254 |
| Introducing new information          | 254 |
| Connecting with given information    | 256 |
| End-weight                           | 257 |
| Discussion topics and projects       | 258 |
| Teaching ideas                       | 261 |
| Further reading                      | 268 |
|                                  |     |
| 10 Direct and indirect speech |     |
| Overview                             | 271 |
| Basic forms                          | 272 |
| Basic meanings                       | 274 |
| Direct speech as drama               | 274 |
| Indirect speech as narrative         | 275 |
| Summarized reports                   | 275 |
| Reporting verbs                      | 276 |
| ‘The teachers were saying ...’       | 276 |
| Meanings in context                  | 277 |
| Free indirect discourse              | 280 |
| Constructed dialogue                 | 282 |
| Discussion topics and projects       | 288 |
| Teaching ideas                       | 290 |
| Further reading                      | 295 |
|                                  |     |
| Glossary                      | 298 |
| Bibliography                  | 308 |
| Answers to exercises          | 322 |
| Index                         | 329 |