

CONTENTS

List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
1 Introduction: commons analytical frameworks and case studies Blake Hudson, Jonathan Rosenbloom and Dan Cole	1
PART I
Theoretical frameworks and alternative lenses for analyzing commons	5
2 Bridging analytical frameworks and disciplines to which they apply Konrad Hagedorn, Philipp Grundmann and Andreas Thiel	7
3 Using the Ostrom Workshop frameworks to study the commons Michael Cox	27
4 Polycentricity Josephine van Zeben	38
5 Connecting commons and the IAD framework Michael D. McGinnis	50
6 Anticommons theory Michael Heller	63

7	Knowledge commons Michael J. Madison, Brett M. Frischmann and Katherine J. Strandburg	76
8	Commons storytelling: tragedies, comedies, and tragicomedies Brigham Daniels	91
9	Common-pool resource appropriation and conservation: lessons from experimental economics Esther Blanco and James M. Walker	106
10	Humanistic rational choice: understanding the fundamental motivations that drive self-organization and cooperation in commons dilemmas Daniel A. DeCaro	117
PART II
Commons interdisciplinary case studies		133
11	The US public lands as commons Bruce Huber	135
12	Water commons: a critical appreciation and revisionist view Eduardo Araral, Maitreyee Mukherjee, Faye Victoria Sit Ying Qi and Serik Orazgaliyev	144
13	Commons analysis and ocean fisheries Bonnie J. McCay	157
14	Coastal commons as social-ecological systems Achim Schlüter, Stefan Partelow, Luz Elba Torres-Guevara and Tim C. Jennerjahn	170
15	Climate as a commons Jouni Paavola	188
16	Governing wildlife commons: wild boars, wolves, and red kites Christian Schleyer, Nina Hagemann and Katharina Rauchenecker	198
17	Ecosystem services as commons? Tatiana Kluvankova, Stanislava Brnkalakova, Veronika Gezik and Michal Maco	208

18	Urban commons of the Global South: using multiple frames to illuminate complexity Seema Mundoli, Hita Unnikrishnan and Harini Nagendra	220
19	Ostrom in the city: design principles and practices for the urban commons Sheila R. Foster and Christian Iaione	235
20	Infrastructure and its governance: the British Broadcasting Corporation case study Brett Frischmann	256
21	Medical information commons Mary Anderlik Majumder, Peter D. Zuk and Amy L. McGuire	281
22	Ethical standards for unconsented data access to build genomic and other medical information commons Barbara J. Evans	294
23	Technology dependent commons Nina Wormbs	308
24	From historical institution to pars pro toto : the commons and their revival in historical perspective Tine De Moor	319
25	Customary authority and commons governance Frank Matose, Phil René Oyono and James Murombedzi	334
26	The role of pseudo-commons in post-socialist countries Insa Theesfeld	345
27	Facilitated self-governance of the commons: on the roles of civil society organizations in the governance of shared resource systems Frank van Laerhoven and Clare Barnes	360
28	Commons, indigenous rights, and governance Iliana Monterroso, Peter Cronkleton and Anne M. Larson	376
29	Globalization, local commons, and the multiscale ecosystem framework (MEF) Timothy O. Randhir	392

PART III
A global context	399
30 Bigger issues in a smaller world: the future of the commons Cheryl Chan, Fatima Noor Khan and Sajida Awan	401
31 Protecting the global commons: the politics of planetary boundaries Oran R. Young and Falk Schmidt	412
Index	425