

Contents

- 1 A Difficulty in the Concept of Social Welfare 1
 - 2 Little's Critique of Welfare Economics 30
 - 3 The Principle of Rationality in Collective Decisions 45
 - 4 Values and Collective Decision Making 59
 - 5 The Place of Moral Obligation in Preference Systems 78
 - 6 Tullock and an Existence Theorem 81
 - 7 A Utilitarian Approach to the Concept of Equality in Public Expenditures 88
 - 8 Some Ordinalist-Utilitarian Notes on Rawls's Theory of Justice 96
 - 9 Formal Theories of Social Welfare 115
 - 10 Rawls's Principle of Just Saving 133
 - 11 Extended Sympathy and the Possibility of Social Choice 147
 - 12 Current Developments in the Theory of Social Choice 162
 - 13 Nozick's Entitlement Theory of Justice 175
 - 14 The Trade-off between Growth and Equity 190
 - 15 Optimal and Voluntary Income Distribution 201
- Index 225