

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
1 Second Language Acquisition and Interculturality during Study Abroad: Issues and Perspectives. An Introduction to the Volume Martin Howard	1
2 ‘Cantonese is My Own Eyes and English is Just My Glasses’: The Evolving Language and Intercultural Attitudes of a Chinese Study Abroad Student Jane Jackson	15
3 Study Abroad and Students’ Discourse on ‘Cultural Difference’: A Longitudinal View Sònia Mas-Alcolea	46
4 Discursive Identity Work and Interculturality during Blue-Collar Work Practice Abroad: Finnish Engineering Students as Language Learners and Users Tiina Räisänen	75
5 English as a Lingua Franca, Motivation and Identity in Study Abroad Leah Geoghegan and Carmen Pérez-Vidal	103
6 Study Abroad as a Context for Learning English as an International Language: An Exploratory Study Àngels Llanes	136
7 Long-Term Residence Abroad and SLA: The Case of Cultural Migrants in France Fanny Forsberg Lundell	155

8	What First Exposure Studies of Input can Contribute to Study Abroad Research Rebekah Rast	179
9	Understanding Socialisation and Integration through Social Network Analysis: American and Chinese Students during a Stay Abroad Rozenn Gautier	207
10	Individual Differences in Study Abroad Research: Sources, Processes and Outcomes of Students' Development in Language, Culture and Personhood Noriko Iwasaki	237
11	Four Questions for the Next Generation of Study Abroad Researchers Celeste Kinginger	263
	Index	279