

CONTENTS

Preface WALTER POHL and VERONIKA WIESER	1
Historiography and Identity: Methodological Perspectives WALTER POHL	7
Historiography and Community: Some Thoughts on the Graeco-Roman Heritage NINO LURAGHI	51
On the Difficulties of Tracing a Religious Identity in the Early Middle Ages: Some Methodological Remarks and a Case Study on Gregory of Tours's Perception and Assessment of Other Religions HANS-WERNER GOETZ	65
Intentional History and the Social Context of Remembrance in Ancient Greece HANS-JOACHIM GEHRKE	95
Memory and Community in Early Hellenistic Athens NINO LURAGHI	107
Greek Local History and the Shape of the Past DANIEL TOBER	133

Love Stories: The Paradoxes of Pleasure in Roman Historiography ANDREW FELDHER	157
Lists, Originality, and Christian Time: Eusebius's Historiography of Succession SCOTT FITZGERALD JOHNSON	191
Polemic in Translation: Jerome's Fashioning of History in the Chronicle MADELINE McMAHON	219
Reading the Past into the Present: Constructing Community, Identity, and Apocalyptic Thought in the Chronicle of Sulpicius Severus VERONIKA WIESER	247
The Many and the One: Communities and Ecclesiastical Histories in the Age of Theodosius II PETER VAN NUFFELEN	299
Index	315