

Part I Applying Social Psychological Theory: A Single Theory Approach

- 1 What Makes for a Good Theory? How to Evaluate a Theory Using the Strength Model of Self-Control as an Example 3
Karolin Gieseler, David D. Loschelder, and Malte Friese
- 2 Mindset Theory of Action Phases and If-Then Planning 23
Lucas Keller, Maik Bieleke, and Peter M. Gollwitzer
- 3 Beyond the Quantity of Motivation: Quality of Motivation in Self-Determination Theory 39
Guy Roth
- 4 Self-Regulation Strategies and Regulatory Fit 51
Kai Sassenberg and Michael L. W. Vliek
- 5 Habit and Behavior Change 65
Bas Verplanken and Sheina Orbell
- 6 Reactance Theory 79
Christina Mühlberger and Eva Jonas
- 7 The Focus Theory of Normative Conduct 95
F. Marijn Stok and Denise T. D. de Ridder
- 8 Social Interdependence and the Promotion of Cooperative Learning 111
Fabrizio Butera and Céline Buchs
- 9 Social Identity Theory 129
Daan Scheepers and Naomi Ellemers
- 10 Intergroup Contact Theory 145
Oliver Christ and Mathias Kauff
- 11 Implicit Prejudice 163
Bernd Wittenbrink, Joshua Correll, and Debbie S. Ma

12	Mindset Theory	179
	Katharina Bernecker and Veronika Job
Part II Combining Theoretical Insights: Addressing Complex Human Behavior
13	The Road to the Piggy Bank: Two Behavioral Interventions to Increase Savings	195
	Minou M. B. van der Werf, Wilco W. van Dijk, Tom F. Wilderjans, and Lotte F. van Dillen
14	Social Media as Sources of Emotions	205
	Sonja Utz
15	Intergroup Forgiveness: The Interplay Between Who We Are and What Tales We Tell	221
	Iwan Dinnick and Masi Noor
	Index	239