

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Kei Hiruta
2	Hannah Arendt, Liberalism, and Freedom from Politics	17
	Kei Hiruta
3	Arendt, Republicanism, and Political Freedom	47
	Keith Breen
4	Romanticizing the Republic: Hannah Arendt on Freedom, Rights, and the Modern State	79
	Christian J. Emden
5	Resisting Injustice: Arendt on Civil Disobedience and the Social Contract	115
	William Smith and Shiyu Zhang
6	Hannah Arendt on National Liberation, Violence, and Federalism	139
	Tal Correm

vii

7	Solidarity at the Margins: Arendt, Refugees, and the Inclusive Politics of World-Making Patrick Hayden and Natasha Saunders	171
8	Arendt's Revolutionary Antiquity Miriam Leonard	201
9	Constitutions Are the Answer!: Hannah Arendt and the Egyptian Revolution Anthony F. Lang Jr.	225
10	The Centrality of the Council System in Arendt's Political Theory Shmuel Lederman	253
11	An Epilogue—Or Epitaph?—For Freedom, Liberation, Revolution Joan Cocks	277
	Index	293