

Contents

---

PREFACE	ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
NOTES ON TRANSLITERATION, DATES AND CITATION	xv
INTRODUCTION: CAN WE TALK ABOUT SLAVERY?	1
What I Argue in this Book	4
Apology for Slavery?	7
Power and the Study of Slavery	10
Blackness, Whiteness and Slavery	11
1. DOES 'SLAVERY' EXIST? THE PROBLEM OF DEFINITION	15
The Main Argument	18
Definition: A Creative Process	18
Definition to Discourse: A Political Process	23
Defining \ 'slā-v(ə-)rē\ : We Know It When We See It	27
Defining Slavery as Status or a Condition	32
Slavery as Unfreedom	34
Slavery as Human Property	38
Patterson &amp; Natal Alienation	43
Slavery as Distinction: The Lowest Rung & Marginality	45
Slavery as Coercion & Exploitation under the Threat of Violence	51
The Problem with Modern-Day Slavery	54
Slavery & Islam – A Very Political Question	61
Conclusion: Of Course, Slavery Exists	64
The Proper Terms for Speaking about 'Slavery'	65
2. SLAVERY IN THE SHARIAH	66
What Islam Says about Slavery – Ideals and Reality	66

Slavery in the Quran & Sunna	70
Inheriting the Near East – Roman, Jewish and Near Eastern Laws versus Islam	76
Islam’s Reform of Slavery	82
Basic Principles of Riqq in the Shariah	84
The Ambiguities of Slavery in the Shariah	91
Riqq & Rights in the Shariah	93
Religious Practice	94
Freedom of Movement	94
Social and Political Roles	94
Marriage and Family Life	95
Right to Property	96
Rights to Life and Physical Protection	97
Summary: Law and Ethics	98
 3. SLAVERY IN ISLAMIC CIVILIZATION	 101
What is Islamic Civilization?	101
Is there ‘Islamic Slavery’?	102
The Shariah & Islamic Slavery	105
Muslims Enslaving Muslims	106
The Classic Slavery Zone	109
Consuming People & ‘Ascending Miscegenation’	110
Slave Populations	113
Routes of the Muslim Slave Trade	113
Blackness and Slavery in Islamic Civilization	119
The Roles and Experiences of Slaves in Islamic Civilization	124
The Slave as Uprooted Person and Commodity	125
The Slave as Domestic Labor . . . Even Trusted Member of a Household	128
Slave as Sexual Partner	130
Slave as Saint, Scholar or Poet	134
Slave as Elite Administrator & Courtesan	136
Slave as Soldier – When Soldiers often Ruled	139
Slave as Rebel	144
 4. THE SLAVERY CONUNDRUM	 147
No Squaring the Circle: The American/Islamic Slavery Conundrum	150
Slavery is Evil	154

The Intrinsic Wrongs of Slavery	159
Religions and Slavery	161
Minimizing the Unminimizable or Historicizing the Unhistoricizable	163
Slavery is Slavery: The Problem of Labeling ‘Slavery’ with One Moral Judgment	164
The Moral Wrongness of Slavery as Unfreedom	166
The Moral Wrongness of Slavery as Owning Human Property	168
The Moral Wrongness of Slavery as Inequality	170
The Moral Wrongness of Slavery as the Threat of Violence	171
The Bald Man Fallacy and the Wrongness of Slavery	172
When Slavery is ‘Not that Bad’: The Problem with Conditions vs. Formal Categories	174
Do Some People Deserve to be Enslaved? Or, Is Freedom a Human Right?	177
The Past as Moral Authority: Can We Part with the Past?	182
The Natural Law Tradition and Slavery	183
Critics of Slavery and the Call for Abolition	185
The Consequences of Moral Progress	192
Muslim Efforts to Salvage the Past	195
5. ABOLISHING SLAVERY IN ISLAM	201
Is Abolition Indigenous to Islam or Not?	203
Islam as Emancipatory Force – An Alternative History	205
Abolishing Slavery . . . For Whom? Concentric Circles of Abolition	212
‘The Lawgiver Looks Expectantly Towards Freedom’ – Abolition as an Aim of the Shariah	217
Doubling Down – Progressive Islam & the Axiomatic Evil of Slavery	218
Prohibited by the Ruler but Not by God: The Crucial Matter of Taqyid al-Mubah	223
If You Can’t Do it Right, You Can’t Do it at All – Prohibiting Riqq Poorly Done	227
Same Shariah, Different Conditions – The Obsolescence or Unfavorability of Slavery	232
Slavery: A Moot Point & Bad PR	238
Defending Slavery in Islam	240

6. THE PROPHET & ISIS: EVALUATING MUSLIM ABOLITION	244
Do Muslim Approaches to Abolition Pass Moral Muster?	244
A Consensus on Abolition	252
Could Slavery in Islam ever be Unabolished?	255
Abolition vs. ISIS	256
This Author's Opinion	263
7. CONCUBINES AND CONSENT: CAN WE SOLVE THE MORAL PROBLEM OF SLAVERY?	265
Species of Moral Change	266
Moral Disgust at Slavery Today	270
Conclusion & Crisis: Concubinage and Consent	275
Consent and Concubines	276
Disbelief is Unproductive	285
Appendix 1 – A Slave Saint of Basra	287
Appendix 2 – Enlightenment Thinkers on Slavery	290
Appendix 3 – Did the 1926 Muslim World Congress Condemn Slavery?	292
Appendix 4 – Was Māriya the Wife or Concubine of the Prophet?	294
Appendix 5 – Was Freedom a Human Right in the Shariah?	299
Appendix 6 – Enslavement of Apostate Muslims or Muslims Declared to be Unbelievers	303
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	309
NOTES	345
INDEX	403