

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	xv
List of Contributors	xvii
1. Introduction to China–Africa and an Economic Transformation Arkebe Oqubay and Justin Yifu Lin	1
Part I. China’s Rise and the Changing Global Development Discourse
2. China’s Economic Emergence and Implications for Africa Linda Yueh	19
3. The Meanings and Global Externalities of China’s Economic Emergence Célestin Monga	35
Part II. Evolving China–Africa Relations: Context, Perspectives, and Framework
4. China–Africa Ties in Historical Context David H. Shinn	61
5. Evolving Debates and Outlooks on China–Africa Economic Ties Chris Alden	84
6. The Institutional Framework of Sino-African Relations Ian Taylor	98
Part III. The Dynamics of China–Africa Economic Ties
7. Chinese Loans and African Structural Transformation Deborah Brautigam	129
8. China’s Development Finance and African Infrastructure Development Jing Gu and Richard Carey	147

Contents

9. The Changing Dynamics of Chinese Oil and Gas Engagements in Africa Cyril Obi	173
10. The Political Economy of China's Investment in Nigeria: Prometheus or Leviathan? Omolade Adunbi and Howard Stein	192
11. Agreements and Dispute Settlement in China–Africa Economic Ties Won L. Kidane	216
12. Labour Regimes and Workplace Encounters between China and Africa Carlos Oya	239
 Part IV. China and Africa's Economic Transformation
13. China's Light Manufacturing and Africa's Industrialization Justin Yifu Lin and Jiajun Xu	265
14. Catalysing China–Africa Ties for Africa's Structural Transformation: Lessons from Ethiopia Fantu Cheru and Arkebe Oqubay	282
15. The Future of China–Africa Economic Ties: New Trajectory and Possibilities Arkebe Oqubay and Justin Yifu Lin	310
 Name Index	 325
Subject Index	327