

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction :
Section 1. The biography and its sources.
Characteristics of the work ; its relation to the Agis and Cleomenes	xiii
Noteworthy omissions in the Aratus	xiv
Plutarch's sources and his treatment of them	xv-xx
Section 2. τὰ πρὸς Ἀράτου.
Antigonus Gonatas withdraws from Greece, acquires Macedon and is assailed by Pyrrhus	xx
His subsequent "settlement" of Greece	xxi
Causes and results of Chremonidean War	xxiii
Antigonus' first war with Egypt	xxv
Addendum A. Peloponnesian tyrants	xxv
Addendum B. Macedonian relations with Egypt, 261-245	xxviii
Section 3. Aratus' career to the capture of Corinth.
Political conditions in Peloponnesus, 252-251	xxxi
Alexander of Corinth ; sources of information	xxxvi
Beloch's view of Alexander's career ; criticism	xxxviii
Gift to Aratus from "the King"	xli
Place and date of Aratus' "shipwreck"	xlii
Alexander's death ; Antigonus' recovery of Corinth	xliv
Antigonus' speech at Corinth in praise of Aratus	xlvi
Chronological summary of Aratus' career to 243	xlvii
Section 4.— Aratus and the extrusion of Macedon.
Aratus' activities after the capture of Corinth	xlix
Aetolian interference in Western Peloponnesus	xlix
Aetolian raid on Achaea ; battle at Pellene	l
Aratus' attacks upon Athens and Argos during peace	lii
The Achaeans in the Demetrian War	lii
Executions attributed to Aristomachus II of Argos	liv
Arcadian cities in Achaean League	lv
Mantineia and Orchomenos join Aetolians	lv
Liberation of Athens and Argos	lvi
Chronological table (245-228)	lviii
Addendum : Aratus at Cynaetha	lviii

	PAGE
Section 5.—The ambition of Cleomenes.
Social problem at Sparta, and elsewhere in Peloponnesus	lix-lxiv
Antecedents of Cleomenic War	lxv
War declared by Achaeans	lxvii
Events of 227-6; revolution at Sparta	lxviii
Events of 226-5; collapse of Achaean resistance	lxx
Aratus and Antigonus Doson; criticism of Ferrabino's chronology	lxxi
Date of battle of Sellasia	lxxv
The Achaean strategos list	lxxvii
Date of Aratus' election as strategos autocrator	lxxviii
Events from secession of Corinth to arrival of Antigonus	lxxx
Cleomenes' loss of Corinth and Argos	lxxxii
Antigonus' campaigns of 223 and 222	lxxxiv
"Settlement" of Sparta	lxxxv
Chronological table	lxxxvi
 Section 6.—Aratus and the "Symmarchy."
Constitution of the Symmarchy	lxxxviii
Antecedents of "Social War"	lxxxix
Symmarchy declares war on Aetolia	xc
Events of 219-218; Aratus and Apelles	xc
Events of 218-217; the Macedonian cabal	xcii
Peace of Naupactus	xciv
Aratus' death; his significance in Greek history	xcvi
 Section 7.—Some features of the Achaean Constitution.
Syncretos	xcix
Synodos	c
Origin of distinction: Electoral Congress	cii
Stated meetings of Synodos	cii
The Achaean Government	ciii
The League and the Cities	civ
 The Greek Text	 I
Explanatory Notes	49
Appendix: MSS. of the Aratus : Principal editions of the Lives: Note on Plutarch's avoidance of hiatus	87
Index of Proper Names	91
Greek Index to Notes	96
English Index to Notes	97
Plan of Ancient Corinth	ad fin.