

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abbreviations	iii
Introduction	v
I. The Works and their Problems	1
A. 1. The Historical Continuity	1
2. The Current Status of Research	10
3. The Literary Model	17
B. 1. The Logical Problem	31
2. The Theological Problem	43
3. The Ethical Problem	61
II. The Logic of Affairs and Causes	72
A. Introduction	72
B. Sense and Reference: A Brief History of Non-Existent Theories	80
C. Impersonal Reference in the Grammatical and Logical Texts	89
1. Impersonal Constructs and Non-Existents: Grammatical Instances	93
a. Inged. 389, 3-392,34	93
(1). Inged. 389,8-391,21	94
(2). Inged. 391,22-31	96
(3). Inged. 391,31-5	99
(4). Inged. 391,35-392,34	106
b. Inged. 369,19-36	108
(1). Inged. 369,19-27	109
(2). Inged. 369,27-31;31-36	109
c. Inged. 358,20-9; 359,8-22 370,15-22; 390,18-22; 392,10-4	111
d. Inged. 368,31-370,22 esp. 369,37-370,3	116
2. Impersonal Constructs and Non-Existents: Logical Instances	119
a. Modal Propositions	120
(1). Problematic Modals and Future Contingents	123
(2). Apodeictic Modals and True Consequences	128
b. Fictive Non-Real Things and the Copula 'Est'	133
c. Truth and Falsity	138
D. The Dictum Theory	142
1. The lekton Theory	147
2. The Stoic Categories	154
3. Conventional and natural Language	158
E. Definitions and Descriptions	172
1. Realism	173
2. Conceptualism	175
3. Logical Nominalism and Philosophical Realism	177

III. Revelation, Verification, and Meaning in the Continuum	180
A. Introduction	180
B. Structural Diversification in the Contents and Method of the Continuum	188
C. Faith, Meaning and the Understanding	234
1. Faith and Knowledge	234
2. Descriptive Theological Discourse: Inspiration and Illumination	240
3. Conventional Theological Discourse: Revelation and Authority	253
D. Meaning and Ethics	271
1. Ethics, Conventionality, and Analogy	271
2. Ethics, Atonement, and theological Discourse	290
3. Theological Nominalism and Non-Realism	303
Appendix I: The Aristotelian texts available to Abaelard	309
Appendix II: Abaelard and contemporary Literature	311
Bibliography	317