

CONTENTS

I	Introduction	9
	The Theme	9
	Xenophon and Scholars	11
	The Cyropaedia	14
	The Title	15
	The Epilogue	16
	The Main Character	22
	Conclusion	25
	Part One: Structure and Narrative Technique	27
II	Framework and Form	29
	Main Structure	29
	The Author	31
	Contrasts and Parallels	33
	Anachronistic Ideas	38
	Time	42
	Conclusion	52
III	People around Cyrus	53
	Cyrus' Family	54
	The Median Friends	62
	The Persian Friends	68
	Cyrus' Allies	76
	Cyrus' Enemies	87
	Conclusion	90
IV	Recurrent Themes	92
	Programmatic Passages	92
	Parallel Scenes	96

Program and Recurrences	104
General Remarks	109
Conclusion	114
Part Two: Meaning and Message	115
V Sources and Models	117
Xenophon and Herodotus	117
Xenophon and Ctesias	135
Xenophon and Antisthenes	139
Persian Sources	141
Xenophon and Plato	144
Conclusion	146
VI The Ideal Leader	147
Innate or Acquired Qualities	147
Change or Development?	152
Cyrus' Attitude towards the Gods	156
Cyrus' Attitude to War and Warfare	158
Philantrophia	163
Engkrateia	170
Philomathia and Philotimia	181
Conclusion	183
VII Other Ideal Leaders in Xenophon	185
Jason of Pherae	186
Cyrus the Younger	187
Agesilaus	192
Socrates	198
Xenophon	203
Conclusion	206
VIII The Ideology of Cyrus	207
Meritocracy	207
Models	210
Openness and Flexibility	213
Generosity or Corruption	215
Totalitarianism or Hierarchy	218
Public and Private — Personal and Impersonal	219
Friendship	221

	Allies	223
	Asceticism	225
	Conclusion	228
IX	Conclusion	230
	Xenophon's Merits	230
	Xenophon's Audience	234
	Xenophon's Message	235
	Xenophon the Hellenist	238
	Conclusion	242
	Bibliography	245
	Indices	251