

Queering the Field

Sounding Out Ethnomusicology

Edited by

GREGORY BARZ AND WILLIAM CHENG

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
About the Authors	xiii

PART 1. FOREWORD

1. Queering the Field: A Foreword	3
Kay Kaufman Shelemay

PART 2. INTRODUCTION

2. Queering the Field: An Introduction	7
Gregory Barz

PART 3. QUEER SILENCES

3. Sounding Out-Ethnomusicology: Theoretical Reflection on Queer Fieldnotes and Performance	31
Zoe C. Sherinian
4. Uncomfortable Positions: Expertise and Vulnerability in Queer Postcolonial Fieldwork	53
Nicol Hammond
5. Queer in the Field? What Happens When Neither “Queer” Nor “The Field” Is Clearly Defined?	67
Gillian M. Rodger

PART 4. OUT/IN THE FIELD

6. “I Don’t Think We Are Safe around You”: Queering Fieldwork in Ethnomusicology	93
Gregory Barz
7. Queerness, Ambiguity, Ethnography	106
Christi-Anne Castro

8. Outing the Methodological No-No: Translating Queer Space to Field Space 120
Alexander M. Cannon
9. Queer Fieldwork in a Queer Field under Surveillance: Musical Spaces in Cuba's Gay Ambiente 139
Moshe Morad

PART 5. QUEERNESS IN ACTION

10. Con/Figuring Transgender-Hijrā Music and Dance through Queer Ethnomusicological Filmmaking 163
Jeff Roy
11. Queer Hip Hop or Hip-Hop Queerness? Toward a Queer of Color Music Studies 185
Matthew Leslie Santana
12. Going through the Motions: Transgender Performance in Topeng Cirebon from North Java, Indonesia 198
Henry Spiller
13. Fielding the Field: Belonging, Disciplinarity, and Queer Scholarly Lives 217
Tes Slominski

PART 6. INSTITUTIONS AND INTERSECTIONS

14. The Lion, the Witch, and the Closet: Heteronormative Institutional Research and the Queering of "Traditions" 235
Aileen Dillane and Nic Gareiss
15. "I'm Not Gay, I'm Black": Assumptions and Limitations of the Normative Queer Gaze in a Panamanian Dance-Drama 257
Heather J. Paudler

PART 7. WHO'S QUEER (W)HERE?

16. Self and/as Subject: Respectability, Abjection, and the Alterity of Studying What You Are 277
Amber R. Clifford-Napoleone
17. Straight to the Heart: Heteronormativity, Flirtation, and Autoethnography at Home and Away 291
Kathryn Alexander

18. Coming through Loud and Queer: Ethnomusicological Ethics of Voice and Violence in Real and Virtual Battlegrounds 307
William Cheng

PART 8. CLUBS, BARS, SCENES

19. The Queer Concerns of Nightlife Fieldwork 335
Luis-Manuel Garcia
20. Ethnographic Positionality and Psychoanalysis: A Queer Look at Sex and Race in Fieldwork 353
Sarah Hankins
21. "Man Created Homophobia, God Created Transformistas": Saluting the Orichá in a Cuban Gay Bar 364
Cory W. Thorne
22. On Serendipity: Or, Toward a Sensual Ethnography 380
Peter McMurray
- Works Cited* 397
- Index* 429