

CONTENTS

Preface	IX
List of abbreviations	XI
I. Morality and Social Relationships	I
II. Morality and Religion	13
III. The Earliest Gods and Morality	19
IV. The Emotional Life of the Greeks: Its Influence on their Moral and Religious Disposition	24
Guilt and Punishment	25
Toil as a Punishment	28
Inevitability in Human Situations	30
The Moral and Religious Attitude of Pericles	33
Widows	34
Orphans	37
Orphans in Plato's Laws and Other Works	41
War Orphans	46
The Presentation of War Orphans to the People	48
The Task of the Archons	50
The Burial of those killed in Battle	50
Dating	51
Emotion	56
Orphans in Jewish Society	56
Legislation and Care in Judaism	57
Guardians for the Care of Jewish Orphans	59
V. Neighbour and Love of Neighbour	62
Digression	72
Wider Concentric Circles	78
Greece as opposed to Rome	82
A Fundamental Principle	83
Appendix	89
VI. Prodigium and Morality	93
The Incomprehensible	93
Sources	97
What was done with deformed Children?	98

	An Androgynous Prediction (Phlegon, Mirabilia , 10)	103
	Conflicting Judgements	117
	Private Omens	124
VII.	The Deformed	129
	Thargelia	129
	Dignitas humana	137
	Stoicism	147
VIII.	Rich and Poor	151
	The Rich and Wealth	151
	The Holding of Office	156
	Καλοὶ καὶ ἀγαθοὶ	161
	Πένης and πτωχός	162
	God as the Helper of the Poor	165
	Theoretical Statements about Help given to the 'Poor'	169
	On the Borderline between Theory and Practice	170
	The Community, the Plousioi and the Penētes	172
IX.	The Opposite Side of the Coin: Man and Citizen	179
	A Moral Question in Practice: Payment for Services rendered to the State	190
	The Law and Morality	193
	Citizens and Parties	194
	The Relationship between Citizens	195
	The Political Structure	198
	The State and the Citizen	199
	The Intrinsic Value of Democracy	201
	Suggestions for Further Research	204
X.	Slaves	205
	The Place of Slavery in Society	206
	Hoplites and Slaves	210
	Slaves as opposed to Free Men	212
	The Nature of Reporting about Slaves and the Lower Classes	215
	Party Conflicts	219
	How can we escape from this Labyrinth?	221
	The Data for Greece	223
	The Control of Slaves	225
	Contracts	226

The Situation of Slavery seen from the Slave's Point of View	226
Differences in Special Places and Special Circum- stances	227
Activities	228
Technology and Morality	232
Town and Country	236
Dissatisfaction with the Scarcity of Data	239
XI. Women in Religion and Morality	242
Unfavourable	243
Favourable	246
Intermediate Standpoint	251
Emancipation?	256
School Education	262
Being of one mind or saying 'we'.	263
The Protection of Women	265
Conclusions	268
XII. Abortion and Family Planning	272
Selected Bibliography	289
Indices
Index of passages from ancient authors	295
General index	300
Modern authors	304